Hello:

We are very proud to be among the first to welcome you, a member of the class of 1964, to Michigan State University, and we are equally happy to welcome back the upperclass women on behalf of A.W.S. Activities and Judiciary-Legislative Boards.

A.W.S. (Associated Women Students) is an organization in which every woman student enrolled in M.S.U. is a member. Its purpose is to serve you, and we hope you will avail yourselves of the services it offers.

On our campus A.W.S. is divided into two boards. Activities Board provides service to M.S.U. women through its coordination of women’s activities, and participation in all-university functions. Judiciary-Legislative Board promotes a representative form of self-government and reflects accepted standards of conduct for M.S.U. women. Your living unit elects representatives to these Boards every winter term. Their names are listed on the following two pages. “Judic” and Activities Boards can operate in your interests only if you indicate your problems and send your suggestions to them through these representatives.

A.W.S. is charged with the responsibility for helping to maintain the academic and social conditions conducive to effective study and development of the university woman, which for the most part, have been established by your fellow women students. You will find more and more that you, as an individual, will be measured by your ability to adapt to these standards.

As a Michigan State student you will want to take part in promoting these A.W.S. standards. We urge you to become familiar with this Handbook and to use it as a guide for good etiquette in university residence living.

We hope that your university career will be a successful one and that A.W.S. will be able to serve you in many ways.

Sincerely,

Julie Shook
Judy Fudge

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Eligibility:

Are you taking part in any extra-curricular activities? Then take a look at the eligibility rulings of Student Congress.

You must have an all-university 2 point average and must be carrying at least 12 credits to be eligible for any office or to be nominated as a Queen. You must maintain a 2 point all-university average during your term of office and also during the term previous to your election. If you fall below an all-university 2 point average during your term of office, you are honor bound to tender your resignation. In case of doubt of status, students should inquire in the Student Government Office.

These regulations are similar to those which are followed in other Big Ten schools. They are designed to foster your effectiveness both academically and in your extracurricular activities. To serve as an officer or to be honored as a Queen is a reward of merit.

Records of Your Activities:

Each term you will be asked to bring your list of activities up to date on an Activities Card which is kept on file with the cards of your housemates. Be sure to list all your activities because they will serve you well. While you are in school they will serve as references for organizations such as Tower Guard, Mortar Board, sororities and other organizations when they are seeking women eligible for membership. This information will be sent to the Women's Division of Student Affairs, 101 Student Services at the end of each school year to be kept on file and to serve as reference material. Your future employers will be interested in your extracurricular activities as well as your academic record.
Don’t be a joiner just for the sake of listing your memberships in the Wolverine. If you limit your activities to those organizations in which you are really interested and really work for them, you will contribute to your own growth as well as to the growth in strength of the organization without reducing your academic achievement. Whatever you do, may your goal be to do it well. It is not so much how much we do, but how well we do it that really counts.

Activities for you:

Following are the possible campus elected leadership positions for which you, as a woman student, can petition:

1. Living unit offices elected during winter term.
2. A.W.S., elected from living units during winter term.
3. Student Congress, elected from living units in spring term.
4. Class Officers, elected by each class during spring term (Freshman class officers are elected fall term)
5. Frosh-Soph Council, elected fall term by living units.

There are many more activities on campus for which you volunteer or rush. A.W.S. has many activities which welcome help at any time. Just contact your A.W.S. Activities representative or the A.W.S. office in Room 338 of the Student Services Building. The structure of the A.W.S. Activities Board follows:

ARTICLE IX
ADOPTION
Section 1. This constitution shall be declared in effect upon a majority affirmative count of the votes cast by the women students of the university at an election to be specified by the Judiciary-Legislative Board.

ARTICLE X
AMENDMENTS
Section 1. Amendments may be made to the constitution by a majority of the votes cast by women students of the university at any election specified by the Judiciary-Legislative Board. Such amendments must be posted in written form in dormitories, A.W.S. office, women's gymnasium, and other women's buildings ten days before the appointed date of the election.

STANDING RULES
The expectation from every woman resident is that of a good citizen in any community. Discretion and good taste in language, dress and general standards of conduct in and out of the living unit are the marks of an educated person. These reflect consideration for other residents and promote the possibility of the maximum use of the educational opportunity. Accumulation of late minutes represents a lack of thoughtful consideration and respect for the rights and privileges of others, and withdrawing from them their proper share of freedom. As a reminder of their responsibilities for self-management is the following code of conduct: "As a student at Michigan State University, I am a member of the Associated Women Students. I will make myself personally responsible for knowing the rules and standards of A.W.S. and my Residence and will strive to uphold them to the best of my ability. I shall endeavor to set for myself a pattern of social standards which will be becoming to a college woman for present and future community living."

These rules apply to all university residences, sorority houses, and off-campus approved housing, inclusively. Infractions of regulations are referred to the Judiciary-Legislative Board of A.W.S.

While the late minute is the standard penalty for infractions of house regulations, such as noise, unmade beds, late returning, etc., standards committees are urged to deal constructively and positively with these occurrences.

Each student may submit a written statement of the fact to the Board. The Board shall then use its discretion in trying any case and deciding the penalty. If the student is dissatisfied with the decision of the Judiciary-Legislative Board, she may re-appeal her case at the next meeting. At any time, the student has the privilege of appearing before the board to appeal her case.

A girl petitioning A.W.S. may secure a petition from her housemother or from the Women's Division located in the Student Services Building. She must have her petition in at the Women's Division office by 11:30 A.M. of the Tuesday immediately following her offense. An automatic 5 late minutes will be given for late petitioning.

Your living unit representative (named on pages 5 and 6) is there to help you. See this Representative for any interpretation or questions concerning the A.W.S. Rules.

I. GENERAL RULES

A. Record of late minutes will be kept by the housemother. An accumulation of 15 late minutes during the term requires that the girl be automatically room campused (see page 32, sec. a) for one week-end night, and that she make up her time as follows:

1. First 15 late minutes: 1 week-end night within the following two week-ends.
2. Second accumulation of 15 late minutes: 1 complete week-end (consecutively Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights) within the following two week-ends.
3. Third accumulation of 15 late minutes: the girl must petition the A.W.S. Judiciary-Legislative Board.

B. Repeated breaking of any residence rules may be dealt with by the Judiciary-Legislative Board.

C. If a girl receives 30 late minutes at one time, she will receive 1 week-end campus. If she receives any more than 30 late minutes at one time, she must petition the Judiciary-Legislative Board.

D. A campus given by A.W.S. must be taken within a week.

E. Any breaking of campusing must be referred to the Judiciary-Legislative Board.

F. It is a girl's responsibility to notify her housemother as soon as her all-university average falls below a 2.00. Failure to do so will result in a penalty to be given by the Judiciary-Legislative Board.

II. HOUSE REGULATIONS

A. Residence Closing Hours

1. 10:30 P.M. Monday through Thursday nights for Freshmen; also upperclass women under an all-university 2.00.

3. 1:00 A.M. Friday and Saturday nights for all women.
4. 12:00 midnight Sunday night for all women.

ALL-UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS

A.W.S. for the convenience of women students—has compiled from various sources the five All Uni versity Regulations about which there has been most demand for information. They are listed below:

1. “Any student possessing, consuming, or transporting any alcoholic beverages—including beer—on M.S.U. property will automatically be suspended from the university. This is a State Board of Trustees ruling. (See current map in ’Motor Vehicle Code’ for property of M.S.U.).”

It is illegal in Michigan for minors (under 21) to purchase, consume, or possess intoxicating beverages or for those over 21 years of age it is illegal to drink such beverages in a car, on the highway, on public property, or while trespassing on some one else’s property.

“No M.S.U. student may possess or consume intoxicating beverages in his off-campus housing unit or at any M.S.U. social activity whether it is on or off the campus.” (See Rules of The Office of The Housing Director and those of the Faculty-Student Social Committee.)

2. “All unmarried, first-year students must reside in the residence halls or with their parents for at least one year at M.S.U. Any exceptions to this rule must be cleared through the Housing Director or the Dean of Students’ Office.”

3. “All women students who are under the age of 25 years must live in housing inspected and approved by the university.”

See the Helot, and the Rules of the Office of The Housing Director.

4. “Michigan State University students are prohibited from having members of the opposite sex in their unchaperoned living quarters.”

See Rules of The Office of The Housing Director.

5. The ringing of a false fire alarm at M.S.U.
results in suspension because it places the safety and security of others in jeopardy.

You will want to know that there are social rules and regulations which apply to M.S.U. social events for mixed groups (whether they are on or off the campus). Consult the social chairman of your residence hall or contact the Women’s Division of Student Affairs (Student Services Building) for special procedures.
Standards for Classes
Library — Union — Offices — Exams — Spectator Sports

The MSU coed is casual and neat in school clothes including shorts, sweaters, blouses, or cottons—which ever is appropriate to the season. Bobby sox with loafers, "scallions", or saddles are worn through the winter months. "Flats" are most attractive during warm weather. A coed makes her best impression on the visiting public, faculty and staff when her dress commands a respect for her seriousness of purpose while studying at M.S.U.

Dressy Occasions
Church — Teas — Concerts — Theater

Heels, hose, wool or other fine fabric dresses are as necessary for special occasions on campus as they are in any city. Hats are expected only for church and teas. Gloves and a purse finish the costume for dressy occasions.

Living Units
Men's Housing — Women's Dining Rooms — Lounges

Except for breakfast each morning and lunch on Saturday when coeds may wear bermudas or slacks (but not short shorts or jeans) in the dining room, the MSU woman should wear regular school clothes when in the lounges of their units or when visiting men's residence halls or fraternity houses.

Sports Activities
Recreation — Intramurals — Active Leisure

MSU coeds wear slacks or bermuda shorts for sports activities unless the particular sport calls for other attire such as leotards or swim suits. Slacks and bermudas are not worn to classes, the library, in campus administrative or business offices.

Short shorts, shorts and jeans are never worn on campus or in the public areas of the residence hall.

Formal — Semi-Formal — Informal
Term Parties — All-University Dances

A formal party or dance at MSU finds coeds in floor or ballerina length dresses. For semi-formal occasions, short formal or dressy cocktail dresses are in order. When the party is informal, the MSU coed wears heels, hose and street length dresses appropriate to the season. If it is to be a casual evening, plan on regular school clothes.

In Town
Lansing — East Lansing

Dress as you would at home—hopefully not in sportswear.
