New Members of Our Teaching Force.

Dr. George A. Waterman, '91, has been appointed to the position of assistant instructor in horticultural science, from which he made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Grange. While taking the agricultural course at the State Normal School, Dr. Waterman made a specialty of veterinary science, and after graduation entered the veterinary college at the State Normal School, from which he graduated in '93. Four months later, while teaching at Rush, Hillsdale county, Michigan, he received a call to the chair of veterinary science in the Storrs School of Agriculture, which he accepted.

After spending the summer in post-graduate work at Chicago he assumed the duties of his new position, which he has discharged successfully to the present time.

Mrs. Maud A. Marshall, instructor in the grade department, has resigned her position at the State Normal School in Fredonia, N. Y., the town of her birth. She had spent seven years as a student and teacher in the high school in Fredonia, and has been teaching there the last year. Mrs. Marshall is a cháu of the late Mrs. Jessie Hellman, a pupil of Mason. She devoted most of her life to such work as will be most valuable to her in performing the duties of her position here.

William O. Beal, B. S., M. A., who has been appointed instructor in mathematics, to take the place of C. C. Pashby, was born February 12, 1873, at Faneuil, Lake county, Michigan. After four years at Raisin Valley Seminary, Adrian, he was taught a district school for one term. Following this he spent three years, '93-'96, at Earlham College, Richmond, Ind. During the past year, he has been doing post-graduate work in astronomy and mathematics at Haverford, Pa., on a fellowship.

Lewis S. Munson, '97, has been appointed to the position of assistant chemist on the Experiment Station staff, to take the place of Thorn Smith, resigned. He was born March 9, 1873, at Corey, Cass county, Michigan, where his parents now reside. In the spring of 1895 he entered the agricultural course at the M. A. C., coming from the district school. During his last year in College he made a special study of chemistry, which he expects to make his life work.

THE M. A. C. RECORD.

SEPTEMBER 14, 1897

That these records show mistakes and short-comings here and there is a matter of course; but they are nevertheless in the main creditable, and we firmly believe that the errors safely depend upon the inspiration of the visit house. God speed our boys and girls in the effort to sow the fondest hopes of parents and friends!

Spend no time today in looking for the highest and most intellectual and physical, are they not all in the book of the chronicles of the students of the M. A. C.?

A Painful Accident.

The following is from last week's Portland Review:—"K. H. Stocum, of Portland, was badly burned about the face while taking flash-light pictures at Bay View last week. He has sent to his brother, Will, a photo of himself, with head and face wrapped in bandages. Under the circumstances it bears little semblance to a human head. By the dipping of the lamp used by Mr. Stocum, powder was thrown on his forehead, nose and cheeks, burning his hair and mustache.

While trying to put out the fire his hands were badly blistered. His eyes were not injured, but it is believed his face will be permanently disfigured."

Mr. Stocum will be here, however, to resume his studies at the opening of the term.
