Proposed Amendments to the Athletic Association Constitution.

At a meeting of the athletic association last Friday, the following amendment were proposed to the constitution:

AMENDMENT TO SECTION III.

The secretary shall have charge of the printing and safe keeping of all the tickets used for the collection of the gate receipts at all games or contests of this association.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION IV.

The sentence, "The treasurer shall give receipts for all fees and dues collected," changed to read, "The treasurer shall give receipts for all monies collected.

It shall be the duty of the treasurer to advance to the various team managers, upon an order from the secretary, counter signed by the president, any amount those officers deem advisable to defray expenses at any time that it is impossible to present the bill or bills of said expenses to the association.

Provided, (1) The treasurer charge the amount advanced to the manager's personal account; (2) The manager in order to get credit for the money advanced shall within five days present to the auditing committee for their approval an itemized account of all expenditures, together with a receipt from the treasurer for money refunded.

The following by-law was presented:

BY-LAW X.

The treasurer shall have charge of the sale of all tickets used for the collection of gate receipts at all games or contests of this association and shall give a receipt to the secretary for the moneys collected.

We hope that these amendments and by-law will pass, as previous to this time the treasurers and managers were open to unjust criticism. It will also lessen the work of the manager on the field when games are being played.

The secretary was authorized to get one thousand copies of the constitution printed, so that all those interested in the association can have copies.

New Members of the State Board of Agriculture.

L. WHITNEY WATKINS.

Lucius Whitney Watkins was born in Jackson county, Michigan, on August 6th, 1873. Never having attended a city or village school, but having received all his early training at home and in the country district where he was reared, he was sent at the age of fifteen years, to the Michigan Agricultural College, from which he was graduated in 1892.

When the eight most proficient students were selected by the college faculty, for Commencement Orations, from the class of '92, with which he entered college, Mr. Watkins, though the youngest in the class, was found to rank third in scholarship and was appointed among those to give the orations at graduation. Sickness in the spring term of his senior year, however, robbed him of this honor.

Mr. Watkins has been a farmer and he is at present associated with his father in the firm of L. D. Watkins & Son of Mancheste, Mich. He is secretary of the Jackson County Farmer's Institute at Fairview Farm, in Jackson county, Michigan, on August 6th, 1873. Never having attended a city or village school, but having received all his early training at home and in the country district where he was reared, he was sent at the age of fifteen years, to the Michigan Agricultural College, from which he was graduated in 1892.

When the eight most proficient students were selected by the college faculty, for Commencement Orations, from the class of '92, with which he entered college, Mr. Watkins, though the youngest in the class, was found to rank third in scholarship and was appointed among those to give the orations at graduation. Sickness in the spring term of his senior year, however, robbed him of this honor.

Mr. Watkins has been a farmer and he is at present associated with his father in the firm of L. D. Watkins & Son of Mancheste, Mich. He is secretary of the Jackson County Farmer's Institute at Fairview Farm, in Jackson county, Michigan, on August 6th, 1873. Never having attended a city or village school, but having received all his early training at home and in the country district where he was reared, he was sent at the age of fifteen years, to the Michigan Agricultural College, from which he was graduated in 1892.

When the eight most proficient students were selected by the college faculty, for Commencement Orations, from the class of '92, with which he entered college, Mr. Watkins, though the youngest in the class, was found to rank third in scholarship and was appointed among those to give the orations at graduation. Sickness in the spring term of his senior year, however, robbed him of this honor.

Mr. Watkins has been a farmer and he is at present associated with his father in the firm of L. D. Watkins & Son of Mancheste, Mich. He is secretary of the Jackson County Farmer's Institute at Fairview Farm, in Jackson county, Michigan, on August 6th, 1873. Never having attended a city or village school, but having received all his early training at home and in the country district where he was reared, he was sent at the age of fifteen years, to the Michigan Agricultural College, from which he was graduated in 1892.

When the eight most proficient students were selected by the college faculty, for Commencement Orations, from the class of '92, with which he entered college, Mr. Watkins, though the youngest in the class, was found to rank third in scholarship and was appointed among those to give the orations at graduation. Sickness in the spring term of his senior year, however, robbed him of this honor.
Arthur A. Crozier

The death of Mr. A. A. Crozier occurred at his home on Giddes avenue in Lansing on the afternoon of January 28. The cause of his death, however, was consumption contracted several years ago. This must have been a source of great comfort to him.

He prepared and had published four resolutions of the Union Literary Society and edited the report for that period.

He was a model of industry, a sacrificer every waking hour, upon it as did Arthur. To him it was more than meat, more than raiment. It was no guile. He knew him, that he was an orderly

he prepared his manuscript for the Press Bulletins, not numbered:

1. In 1894, Doubtful substitutes for Clover.
2. In 1895, Alike Clover.
3. In 1896, Millet.
4. In 1895, Spurry.
5. In 1896, Alfalfa.

Mr. Crozier had accumulated hundreds of clippings from the press, which would be helpful in large numbers of the work in the future. He had named hosts of topics in which he was interested, and all of which he wished to investigate.

He prepared his manuscript for the Press Bulletins, not numbered:

1. In 1894, Doubtful substitutes for Clover.
2. In 1895, Alike Clover.
3. In 1897, Crimson Clover.
4. In 1899, Spurry.
5. In 1897, Alfalfa.

Mr. Crozier had accumulated hundreds of clippings from the press, which would be helpful in many stages of his work. He was a model of industry, a sacrificer every waking hour, upon it as did Arthur. To him it was more than meat, more than raiment. It was no guile. He knew him, that he was an orderly

he prepared his manuscript for the Press Bulletins, not numbered:

1. In 1894, Doubtful substitutes for Clover.
2. In 1895, Alike Clover.
3. In 1896, Millet.
4. In 1895, Spurry.
5. In 1896, Alfalfa.

Mr. Crozier had accumulated hundreds of clippings from the press, which would be helpful in many stages of his work. He was a model of industry, a sacrificer every waking hour, upon it as did Arthur. To him it was more than meat, more than raiment. It was no guile. He knew him, that he was an orderly

he prepared his manuscript for the Press Bulletins, not numbered:

1. In 1894, Doubtful substitutes for Clover.
2. In 1895, Alike Clover.
3. In 1896, Millet.
4. In 1895, Spurry.
5. In 1896, Alfalfa.

Mr. Crozier had accumulated hundreds of clippings from the press, which would be helpful in many stages of his work. He was a model of industry, a sacrificer every waking hour, upon it as did Arthur. To him it was more than meat, more than raiment. It was no guile. He knew him, that he was an orderly

he prepared his manuscript for the Press Bulletins, not numbered:

1. In 1894, Doubtful substitutes for Clover.
2. In 1895, Alike Clover.
3. In 1896, Millet.
4. In 1895, Spurry.
5. In 1896, Alfalfa.

Mr. Crozier had accumulated hundreds of clippings from the press, which would be helpful in many stages of his work. He was a model of industry, a sacrificer every waking hour, upon it as did Arthur. To him it was more than meat, more than raiment. It was no guile. He knew him, that he was an orderly

he prepared his manuscript for the Press Bulletins, not numbered:

1. In 1894, Doubtful substitutes for Clover.
2. In 1895, Alike Clover.
3. In 1896, Millet.
4. In 1895, Spurry.
5. In 1896, Alfalfa.

Mr. Crozier had accumulated hundreds of clippings from the press, which would be helpful in many stages of his work. He was a model of industry, a sacrificer every waking hour, upon it as did Arthur. To him it was more than meat, more than raiment. It was no guile. He knew him, that he was an orderly

he prepared his manuscript for the Press Bulletins, not numbered:

1. In 1894, Doubtful substitutes for Clover.
2. In 1895, Alike Clover.
3. In 1896, Millet.
4. In 1895, Spurry.
5. In 1896, Alfalfa.

Mr. Crozier had accumulated hundreds of clippings from the press, which would be helpful in many stages of his work. He was a model of industry, a sacrificer every waking hour, upon it as did Arthur. To him it was more than meat, more than raiment. It was no guile. He knew him, that he was an orderly

he prepared his manuscript for the Press Bulletins, not numbered:

1. In 1894, Doubtful substitutes for Clover.
2. In 1895, Alike Clover.
3. In 1896, Millet.
4. In 1895, Spurry.
5. In 1896, Alfalfa.

Mr. Crozier had accumulated hundreds of clippings from the press, which would be helpful in many stages of his work. He was a model of industry, a sacrificer every waking hour, upon it as did Arthur. To him it was more than meat, more than raiment. It was no guile. He knew him, that he was an orderly

he prepared his manuscript for the Press Bulletins, not numbered:

1. In 1894, Doubtful substitutes for Clover.
2. In 1895, Alike Clover.
3. In 1896, Millet.
4. In 1895, Spurry.
5. In 1896, Alfalfa.

Mr. Crozier had accumulated hundreds of clippings from the press, which would be helpful in many stages of his work. He was a model of industry, a sacrificer every waking hour, upon it as did Arthur. To him it was more than meat, more than raiment. It was no guile. He knew him, that he was an orderly

he prepared his manuscript for the Press Bulletins, not numbered:

1. In 1894, Doubtful substitutes for Clover.
2. In 1895, Alike Clover.
3. In 1896, Millet.
4. In 1895, Spurry.
5. In 1896, Alfalfa.
Y. M. C. A. Notes.

We were much pleased to receive visits last week from our State Secretary, Mr. C. M. Copeland of Detroit, and Mr. H. W. Rose, General Secretary at the U. of M. They came Friday afternoon, January 25, and left all over Sunday, conducting four well attended public meetings for students. The separate conferences with each committee were very helpful features of their work. The inspiration brought by these consecrated men has given the association work a great impulse along all its lines of activity, especially that of Bible study.

The two associations enjoyed a union social last Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. The presence of about 65 congenial young people and the awakening games played early in the evening, aroused such an interest that all enjoyed themselves thoroughly till nearly 11 o'clock. An interesting program was rendered, including recitations by Messrs. Lowery, Chadsey, Gingrich and Ballock, an Arabian song by Mr. Bodourian, and music. College songs enlivened the "between." We hope to make these socials a permanent feature of the association work.

The next annual State convention will be held in Saginaw, W. S., February 23-25. We shall try to send 10 men from our association.

At the College.

Miss Keller was in St. Johns on institute work last week.

Miss Rushmore was at Howell last week.

Mrs. Barrows entertained at duplicate whist last Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Dunstall, Ypsilanti, spent a few days with Miss Ronan last week.

Mrs. C. H. Harris went to Grand Rapids yesterday to spend the remainder of the winter.

Miss Wilson will lead the union Y. M. M and Y. W. C. A. missionary meeting next Sunday evening.

Rev. Fayette Thompson spoke in Chapel Sunday morning on the limitations of the years of life.

Dr. Kedzie went to Grand Haven yesterday morning to attend the funeral of his brother, A. S. Kedzie.

Maj. Bandholz, of the 95th Michigan, has been breveted captain in the regular army for meritorious service at El Caney.

Dr. Beal says the ten new cases of typhoid fever purchased by the Botanical department at $77.50 each are as good as could have been purchased at twice that sum a few years ago.

During the past two weeks Professor Pettit has been giving a course in practical entomology to the short course students in botany, and this will be supplemented by a few lectures by Professor Barrows on the relations of insects and birds, the protection of fruit from birds, and the importance of birds and other animals to the fruit grower.

Meeting of the Natural History Society Wednesday evening at 6:30 in Zoological lecture room. Professor Wheeler will talk on some peculiarities of plants recently found in Michigan; Professor Barrows will finish his talk of two weeks ago on Winter Birds; and, should time allow, some interesting stereopticon pictures will be shown. All students—whether members of the society or not—are cordially invited.

Professor Barrows has just secured from Montana a fine skin of the rare Rocky Mountain goat, which will be mounted and placed in the Museum as soon as practicable. This species, a snow-white goat-antelope of large size, is now restricted to a few localities in the Rocky Mountains of the U. S. and British Columbia, where it frequents the regions of perpetual snow, and is seldom hunted successfully. The College is fortunate to obtain so good a specimen.

Our Literary Societies.

OLYMPIC SOCIETY.

Program Jan. 28, 1899.

Meeting was called to order by Pres. Hainsford.

Roll call was responded to by quotations from Lowell.

Characterization, "My Uncle Sam," C. S. Babington.

Banjo duet, Messrs. Reed and Leavitt.

Story, L. G. Michael.

Soliology on Music, G. M. Oldham.

Critic, E. R. Russell.

Severe. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, which was enjoyed by about thirty of the members and their lady friends.

A. M. Patriarche, '98, is now located in Minneapolis.

Severely Burned.

G. W. Bailey, a lineman who helped put in our electric light plant last winter and who has since become a student at the College, suffered serious injury by coming in contact with the switch-board in the Physical laboratory Saturday afternoon. He was upon the apparatus case in Prof. Woodworth's office making connections for a light in the work room, when he slipped, struck his head against the switch-board, and immediately fell unconscious from the shock of a 2,000 volt current, which passed across the left side of his face and head. Dr. Church was called and found that Mr. Bailey's injuries, though painful, were not dangerous. He was taken to the City Hospital and in a few hours was resting comfortably. The whole left side of his face is burned, swollen and discolored, but it is thought that he will be out in a few days. The affair was purely an accident, for which no one can be blamed. The switch-board is about twelve feet from the floor and under ordinary circumstances nobody can possibly come in contact with it.

The M. A. C.

Special Hat

Is now on sale; much nicer than last season; better material and workmanship—the price remains the same.

Fifty Cents.

If you want up-to-date neckwear I would have great pleasure in showing you the most complete line of natty ties in Lansing.

Sweaters, Golf Hose, Caps, Hats and Shirts are lines in which I lead.

Students' patronage respectfully solicited.

Elgin Milfflin.

The Outfitter.
News from Graduates and Students.

Arthur F. Stow with '92 is farming near Fowler.
Geo. F. Bristol with '90 called at the College Saturday.
J. J. Bond with '88 is editor of Hotel World, 324 Dearborn St., Chicago.

To Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Collingwood '85, a daughter was born last Wednesday.

Frank H. Corbin with '92 is a commission merchant at 105 West 13th St., New York.
A. J. Beese with '93 is secretary and treasurer of the Michigan Flax Fiber Co., Saginaw.

Charles F. Herrmann '97 has become a member of the firm, John Herrmann's Sons, tailors.

B. F. Davis, cashier of the City National Bank in Lansing, was a student at this College in '92 and '93.
Wm. E. Wallace with '95 is an upholsterer and president of the Upholsterers' Union in Grand Rapids. He resides at 138 Clancy street.

Frank E. Baker with '99, Detroit, is a student of medicine at the U. of M. He was in the Cuban war as a private and acting Hospital Steward, Co., A., 2d U. S. Inf.

C. F. Bosh with '95 is secretary and treasurer of the Bean Tie Company, Louisville, Ky., and also paymaster and purchasing agent for the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railway Company. Arthur C. Munson with '95 is express messenger on the same railway.

Lloyd C. Bartness with '95 began as oiler on a Pacific Mail Steamer and worked his way up until he became master of a treasure engine.
A. J. Beese with '93 is secretary and treasurer of the Michigan Flax Fiber Co., Saginaw.

The following paragraph from a Colorado paper was sent as by Prof. L. G. Carpenter '79. The George A. J. Beese with '93 is secretary...