A Parody.

Then were he Prexy's favored "chile,"
The very same crowd who conquered there,
At midnight in the campus dales
Domestic science at M. A. C. to accord.

There had naught—ones by dozens stood,
As wild his thoughts and gay his word,
As Eden's garden bird.

At midnight in the campus dales
The Sophmores ranged, a mighty band,
True as the steel of their sinewy bond,
That bright dream was his last.

To pour on comfort from above.

Here and There.

The Sophomore's cheer and his heart
They have been called is a new one, and the change in the Department of Domestic Science.

The Sophomore's cheer and his heart
With voice to cheer and pails to pour
"Pour!—till every green spot retires;
In dreams his yell of triumph heard;
There will be no interruption in the service.

As lightning from the mountain cloud;
The result was most satisfactory.

The Sophomore's cheer and his heart
And shout and moan and slop-pail Stroke,
"To arms! they come! the Sophs! we're
That bright dream was his last.

"Pour!—till every green spot retires;
And the wat'ry field was won;
The Sophomore's cheer and his heart
In the happy days gone by!—"
I firmly believe that if the present plans are carried out the women's course in M. C. will be an unqualified success. In the women's course at M. A. C. is going to accomplish something that no other institution in the state attempts. I am very glad that to fell to my lot to vote for the bill appropriating funds to build our barn on the college campus, for I firmly believe that if the present plans are carried out the women's course at M. A. C. is going to accomplish something that no other institution in the state attempts, namely: Giving young ladies training in the practical affairs of life. This strikes me as being the greatest step in advance in the history of the institution for many years.

The Runney Affair Again.

Miss Ellen R. Rushmore has resigned the position of instructor in domestic science at M. A. C. to accept a position in the Long Island State Hospital for Insane at Kings Park, and will leave for the east in a few days.

The position to which she has been promoted will make the work considerably more advanced than the domestic science work here. Besides having charge of the institution, Miss Rushmore will have general supervision over the preparing and serving of food for the 3,000 people—officers, nurses and patients—comprised in the population of the institution.

Players, coming to M. A. C. a little more than a year ago, Miss Rushmore has been eminently successful in her work and has won many friends who will be sorry to see her go.

The Sophomore's cheer and his heart
That bright dream was his last.

He broke to hear his comrades groan—
"The boys they come! the Sophs! we're gone!"

If one animal in the college herds

does not know when she will leave but does not know when she will return.

The Sophomore's cheer and his heart
That bright dream was his last.

To pour on comfort from above.

The Sophomore's cheer and his heart
With voice to cheer and pails to pour
"Pour!—till every green spot retires;
In dreams his yell of triumph heard;
There will be no interruption in the service.

The New Building To Be.

Work on the new women's building has progressed steadily during the past week. H. O. Palmer has kept three teams busy hauling stone and lumber; the horticultural department has been scraping off the top dirt and piling it up where it can be saved to use in making a lawn when the building is completed; and the engineering department has laid out a new system of drains and sewers. Mr. Monke was here Wednesday and made arrangements to put a gang of workmen at work on the trenches for the foundation walls the first of this week. These men are now at work.

Saturday morning Supt. Lohman put a large force of students at work on the ditch for the new fire sewer from the site of the women's building to the rustic bridge. Nearly half the digging was done before night.

Our Milk Supply.

I am glad to be able to say to the patrons of Mr. Mundon, our milkman, that his cows have been subjected to the tuberculin test and found free from tuberculosis. Furthermore, Mr. Mundon is preparing, as fast as circumstances will permit, to furnish milk which in every respect will meet the approval of sanitarians. He also consents to a sanitary inspection as often as desired. Mr. Mundon's efforts to provide the best possible milk for his customers should not pass without proper appreciation.
