The care of work horses on the farm. The farm horse needs the best care both in the line of feeding and handling. But, unfortunately, he sometimes receives the poorest. He needs a good team, keep them, do not trade or sell, when they get old lay them off or kill them. Do not sell or trade them to the person, to be misused the rest of their lives.

"Grass is not a good feed for heavy horses. Change your rations gradually, and if you can chop the hay. Use timothy and clover mixtures, as they are all the same kind. Give advantage to the horse; be particular about your resting places. Let the horse keep an empty stomach in him. He will appreciate your kindness." A. G. B.

Botanical Club.

"Early Fungi" was the subject discussed by Mr. Longyear before the club Tuesday evening. He spoke on the habits of the fungi, their distinguishing characteristics, manner of growth, time of appearance, etc. This genus are distinguished from all others and may be collected and eaten with safety, as they are of the species of the group are edible. There are, so far as known, six species of morels in this state, while of other forms there are from one hundred and fifty to two hundred, some edible, but many poisonous. In collecting for food it is best to learn a few edible and avoid all others, as no definite rule can be given to distinguish the edible from the poisonous.

Prof. Hedrick brought in some specimens of adventitious buds which are so often seen as little hard knots on the back of fruit trees. The bud is pushed out by the growth of the tree and remains as a knot in the bark. Prof. Wheeler brought in a peculiar trillium having two extra petals, the small petals are green and part white. The pistils were distinctly three in number. Prof. Preble brought in mandrake leaf; the area of the leaf is the same size as the thumb of the average person, A. C.ledged, but the petiole is over a foot long. The root is like a root, and after a long and testing, as disabilities and disinclination, some very pretty wrestling, especially between Brunger and Rudolph, three of which were made by Doolittle, three errors, three bases on balls, and got three bases on balls. Doolittle, three, and Baker had two passed balls. For Kazoo there were seven hits, three errors, three bases on balls. For Kazoo there were seven hits, three errors, three bases on balls. Severe two passed balls. Batteries—Doolittle and Baker; Calhoun and Stripp.

The postponed wrestling contest was held Tuesday evening, at which the juniors and sophomores, accompanied the team both to Kalamazoo and Ypsilanti, at which latter place the team was left last Saturday. The boys started in with good play up to the fourth inning, when, with three men on bases, Ypsi hit a double. But they gave way to the freshmen in a ball game, 17 to 14, in an exciting contest of seven innings.

Athletic Notes.

Intercollegiate Field Day in Lansing on June 1 and 2.

H. P. Weydemeyer was unanimously chosen captain of the track team at a meeting of the team last Tuesday evening. Weydemeyer is the only one in college this year out of the five intercollegiate wrestlers of last year. Our best woman on the 100 yds. and 220 yds. west home at the close of the winter term; Brown, winner of the three bicycle races, and with the first of the tiny wall, going in the middle of the middle; Olsen who took the 220 yds. hurdle, defeated the first of this term; and Christopher, winner of the pole vault, did not come back.

Further than this, there is only one other man now in the team who placed among the first ten, and third winners, taking second in his only event. He is a likely man for first place in his event this year. Of these men who are now, in fact, just started in events last year but got no place, yet these two men, we think, may be the first of firsts this year. The large number of new men are showing up remarkably well, and there will be a number of surprises on field day.

The chances of the track team were seldom, if ever, better than this year. Of the three M. A. C. winners in last year's wrestling contests, not one is in college, yet with the work and material showing up so well we are hopeful of the result in line too.

The M. A. C. ball team went to Kalamazoo on Monday of last week and played a game which was characterized by Kalamazoo people as the best of the season. The score of 4-0 was in favor of Kazoo; the main points were as follows: M. A. C. made three hits, two by Frank, and one by Doolittle, three, errors, and got three bases on balls. Doolittle, three, and Baker had two passed balls. For Kazoo there were seven hits, three errors, three bases on balls. Severe two passed balls. Batteries—Doolittle and Baker; Calhoun and Stripp.

The last scheduled practice game is at Olive, May 28.

Lundly and Willetts with a number of other willing workers have staging the intercollegiate wrestling courts in excellent condition, and play began on them last week.

A great amount of enthusiasm is being manifested in tennis, and large number of candidates will work off the preliminaries and finals this week.

The postponed wrestling contest to further decide the points for the Brackett class cup was held in the armory last Friday night. Only the team members and weigh weights were contested, as disabilities and disqualification reduced the number to only two on each of the four teams. Baker, '02, being the one in the middle and the heavy, and Bryant, '03, in the feather weight. Without going into the mat, Doolittle, three, and Bryant three. In the light weight, Barring and Hall, '02, with the winners, but tossed up for first place, the toss being won by Hall. Bullock, '02, took third.

The lighter weight showed up some very pretty wrestling especially between Brunger and Rudolph, the latter of whom, at one time, ex-territed himself after a long and hard struggle from a position which seemed impossible to take. Walker, No. 35, won first in this weight, Brunger, '02, second, and French, '02, third. The points for the evening summed up for the freshmen 11 points to 10 for the sophomores. These were added to the 26 and go points respectively on the season, these two and six weeks ago, make 49 for the sophomores and 39 for the freshmen. The freshmen content themselves with the work that, based on actual performance, they are ahead, but the sophis, only smile and point to the score.

On last Thursday an athletic meeting was held, at which the three following yells were adopted as special supplements to the regular College yell:

All students are requested to learn them for field day and other occasions.

The juniors and freshmen had a game of ball on Saturday afternoon.

The next class game will be between the juniors and sophomores.

The boys started in with good play up to the fourth inning, when, with three men on bases, Ypsi hit a double. Our Paris Letter.

This is Paris. The Americans who are here to install the exhibits of the United States are a long way from home. They realized this before they came, and they have been looking forward to the time when they could return home, and when they started they thought they would be back in a matter of weeks. But they have been here for months, and now they are beginning to think of the long wait.

The baggage men are working hard, and the exhibits are being taken care of. The Americans are doing their best to see that the exhibits are taken care of, and they are doing a good job.

But they are getting tired, and they are beginning to think of the long wait. They are beginning to feel that the wait is not worth it.

But they are going to see that the exhibits are taken care of, and they are doing a good job.

Financial Assistance to Instructing Staff.

The following is from the Annual Report of the Alumni Association of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

"The handsome gift of fifty thousand dollars by Mr. Augustus Lowell, the income of which is available to assist members of the instructing corps, under certain conditions, is one of great importance. At previous times has the institution been able officially to give aid of this sort, and there have been one or more instances where the object was most deserving of help. There will doubtless be many cases hereafter when a lifelong service may be benefited as it should be after many years of faithful work for the school.

The generous donor of this fund hopes that it will grow in time, until the institute will be enabled to assist its professors and instructors to some further opportunities for study and education through foreign travel, and all who are aware of the arduous
