NEW M. A. C. TEACHERS.

There are several changes in the teachers this year, some of them very important ones, and in consequence sketches of the new teachers are given below to introduce the new faces to the RECORD readers.

PROF. R. S. SHAW, B. S.
Professor of agriculture, superintendent of the farm, experimenter in live stock, and member of the experiment station council, fills the vacancy created by the resignation of Prof. Munford. Prof. Shaw graduated from Guelph in ’93, spent two years on his father’s farm, and has been connected with the Montana Agricultural College the past four years as professor of agriculture. He received an offer from the South Dakota Agricultural College before accepting the position at M. A. C., and his selection is regarded as particularly fortunate. Prof. Shaw was born in Woodburn, Ont., in 1871.

ARTHUR E. KOCHER, B. S.
Instructor in soils and crops, graduated with the class of ’92, M. A. C., and will have charge of the work which was in charge of Instructor Severance last year. The home of Mr. Kocher is Chestonia.

PROF. ERNEST K. POGUE, M. S.
Professor of Forestry, is a graduate of the Ohio State University in horticulture and forestry, ’94, with the degree of B. S. In ’96 he received the degree of M. S. from the same institution. From ’96 to ’00 Prof. Pogue was botanist of botany and entomology in the Oklahoma Agricultural College. Prof. Pogue has done post-graduate work at Harvard besides that done at the Ohio State University, and has been familiar with the practical side of forestry from boyhood. He is a native of Ohio.

PROF. JAMES R. DANDELO, A. M.
Assistant professor of botany, graduated from Queen’s College in ’95 and received the A. M. degree from Harvard in ’99, spending two years in the botanical laboratories of Harvard after receiving the degree. Professor Dandeno comes to M. A. C. from the Harvard summer school where he has been an instructor the past season. He was born near Guelph, Ontario.

LOUIS FREYHOFER, B. S.
Instructor in music, fills the position made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Marshall. Miss Freyhofer’s home is Berea, Ohio, at which place she took her first collegiate training, graduating from the German Wallace College in ’91, from the Baldwin University School of Music in the same city in ’97. During ’97 and ’98 Miss Freyhofer studied in Cleveland under the direction of Mr. James H. Rogers. The next two years were spent as teacher of music in Central Wesleyan College, Warrenton, Missouri. Miss Freyhofer has just returned from two years of study in the Stern Conservatory, Berlin, Germany, having for instructors, Professors Lutzenko, Loewengard, and Jedlicza, the latter being a rival of the great Barth.

LE ROY F. HARRIS, B. S.
Instructor in mathematics graduated in ’00 from the South Dakota Agricultural College at Brookings, South Dakota, which place is his home. Mr. Harris has been tutor in mathematics in his Alma Mater for two years.

DE FOREST W. SAWTELLE, B. S., PH.B.
Instructor in English is a graduate of the South Dakota State Normal School ’94 and a graduate of McMinnville College, McMinnville, Oregon in ’95 receiving from the latter college the degree of B. S. Mr. Sawtelle graduated from the University of Chicago this year with the degree of Ph. B. and besides his undergraduate work has taken post-graduate work in the University. From ’98 to ’00, Mr. Sawtelle was princi-
