102 A souvenir postcard from Mr. Craig shows a pretty view of nine of the thirteen buildings at Pullman, Washington. Mr. Craig states that they have 1000 students.

COLUMBIAN SOCIETY.

The Columbian Literary Society gave a ten o'clock Saturday evening, March 10. The program consisted of a play entitled "Getting Ready for a Ten O'clock Party." After the play refreshments were served. Dr. and Mrs. Waterman acted as patrons.

Y. W. C. A.

Miss Helen Andrews conducted the Thursday evening meeting. She spoke of the importance of good Christian girls to us; as our officers for the coming year. The business meeting followed at which the following girls were elected: Florence Barlow, president; Mary Pratt, vice president; Mabel McDowell, secretary; Zoe McConnell, treasurer.

EUROPEAN PARTY.

The blaze of the camp fire, the smell of the pines, heap much firewater, the peace pipe and friendly pew were the features which assisted in making the European party, Saturday night, a very enjoyable occasion.

The early hours of the big council were occupied by the more serious speeches and deliberations of the big chiefs, and the war songs of four of the braves; later in the evening, the council having dispersed, the braves and maidens assisted in making the Eunomian wigwams.

The tribe were especially fortunate in having with them, as representatives of the Great White Father, Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Gildings of Lansing.

GLUTTON PETERS.

We present this week a half tone of M. A. C.'s representative in the recent oratorical contest, also table showing marquis of both the judges on composition and delivery. This table was necessarily crowded out last week, but the half-tone which was promised us "in good time" for the issue of Feb. 6, failed to reach us until noon on the following day. This accounts for the late appearance of the cut which should have been in the paper with the oration of Miss Peters.

ATHLETICS.

The base ball schedule for the spring term as approved by the faculty at its last meeting is as follows:

April 13, Olivet at M. A. C. — 20, Albion at Albion.

21, Olivet at M. A. C.

28, Orchard Lake at M. A. C.

April 30, DePauw at M. A. C. — 17, Hillsdale at Hillsdale.

May 7, Alma at Alma.

12, Kalamazoo at M. A. C.

17, Wisconsin at Wisconsin.

19, Kalamazoo at Kalamazoo.

May 24, Albion at M. A. C. — 26, Olivet at Olivet.

28, Hillsdale at M. A. C.

30, Armour Institute at M. A. C.

The cup games will be played on May 5, 12, 24, 26, and 28. This gives us three of the best on the home grounds. Nothing definite can be stated as yet concerning season tickets.

The freshman high school meet held Saturday was a success in every way. There was plenty of fun and good events. The competition was high, but it has been marked, although the freshmen won handily as they have always done, the final score standing 57 to 24. The freshmen have shown up unusually strong this year, both as to numbers and quality. Too onlookers could not be present, but will be on hand to meet Alma's man.

HORSE.

On Wednesday the seventh, the Horticultural club held its regular meeting. Prof. Fletcher spoke to the club on the subject of the "Origin of the Pacific North West." This was a very interesting talk taking up the possibilities of the States of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and others; showing their great resources as to soil, climate and the like. The discussion of their markets and method of handling fruit was also instructive.

The club extends its thanks to Professor Fletcher for an enjoyable evening.

On next Wednesday, the fourteenth, the last meeting of the term will be held.

FOR RENT—Nicerly furnished rooms. Rent reasonable. Mrs. Jenison, College Delta.

The Feronian Society entertained their honorary members and invited guests at an eleven o'clock party in the armory on Saturday evening. The Japanese idea was carried out in two weeks myself. I wish you all a pleasant week.—ED.
A higher per cent, of food taken in farm life. Several other reasons explained the place held by chickens on the farm, and that they furnished the farmer with a good food. An interesting discussion followed in which the relative merits of the hen and incubator were brought out. Also points in handling chicken parasites.

SENIOR ENGINEERING SOCIETY.

At the last meeting on Wednesday evening Mr. B. Stevens talked about the relative values of coal and oil fuels. Oil is obtained in large quantities from beneath the bed of the Pacific ocean on the coast of Alaska. In the winter this oil is burned in unrefined condition. It compares very favorably, with coal as a fuel and will no doubt, replace it in time.

The question debated this May evening was “Resolved, That the Wisconsin System of Controlling the State Charitable Institutions is Preferable to the Michigan System.” C. H. Goets and L. Grover upheld the affirmative, A. N. Robinson and C. P. McNaughton sustained the negative. The affirmative received the unanimous decision of the judges. They maintained that since the controlling power of the judges. They maintained that since the controlling power of the State Charitable Institutions was centralized in the hands of five men, there was an economical saving of many thousands of dollars annually as salaries. They tried to show that there were fewer chances for political corruption, where the number of officers are reduced to as few as five. The debate was a success.

FARMERS’ CLUB.

In last week’s Record it was announced that Prof. Smith would talk on "Poultry" at the Farmers’ Club, but on that afternoon the professor was called away. We hope to have him with us at our next meeting.

After much loss of breath in the way of argument and persuasion, Mr. Anderson consented to give his talk on “Poultry as an Adjunct to Farming,” which was to be the last subject on the winter program.

Mr. Anderson in his introduction gave an idea of the position held by poultry and eggs among the world's products. In bringing out the place held by chickens on the farm he compared the farm without them to a house that had been closed for some time and the clock allowed to stop. On entering such a house the silence was oppressive and so on the farm without poultry the silence was worse. Disturbing Poultry then adds to the joy of farm life. Several other reasons were given why, poultry is a necessary part of the farm, among them, that they use a class of food that would otherwise be wasted and that they added a higher per cent, of food taken into the body than other live stock on the farm.

YPSILANTI seems already to meet M. A. C. in the coming season. Several of the persons who will meet the M. A. C. team are Messrs. Fitzeiner, Willman and Oden, Editors of the Normal Intelligencer. A storm may take us by storm if the following statements from the College News is to be taken as a criticism.

“Plans are already under way to send a large delegation of roosters to Lansing. The intercollegiate debate with M. A. C. comes off, probably May 15. Two years ago this debate was made the occasion of a holiday at the Normal, 228 roosters being excused from class work to accompany the team in a special train.

“The delegation from M. A. C. last year was about 20 persons, but the crowd that will go from here to Lansing this spring will make even the record crowd of 1904 seem like a side show. M. A. C. had better look a little out.”

THE DEBATING CLUB.

The Union Literary Society pleased the faculty and instructors in their rooms Saturday evening, March 10. The guests began to arrive at 7:30 and after a social hour in which the guests were warmly welcomed, they were seated and the assembly room and the following program was rendered: Roll call—responded to by quota tions from the faculty and the assembly. Presentation by the faculty of the institution in which the guest was a student and of the president or faculty of that institution shall be read.

The Rev. Reed of the University, the Rev. J. M. Stuart of Albion College, Mr. Carr of the University, and the Rev. W. W. Wedemeyer of Alma College delivered addresses. Music and dancing occupied the remainder of the evening and the guests departed voting the occasion one of the most pleasant of the year.

ATHLETIC CONFERENCE.

At the conference held at Battle Creek, Friday evening, for the purpose of settling some questions regarding the rules of the M. A. C. and the AAU, an Adrian delegation gave their impressions of the state convention in Thursday evening’s meeting. They showed a very enthusiastic interest in the meeting and mentioned especially the earnest address of Prof. Robinson of Adrian College, and Clayton S. Cooper, of New York, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. International Committee. Among those who spoke were Messrs. Durand, Wilkinson, Orvis, Stephenson and Turner.

Very interestingly, the delegates to the student volunteer conference spoke of their splendid trip to Nashville, of the helpful, uplifting and earnest speeches of such men as John R. Mott, of the inspiring presence of scores of foreign missionaries, of the unabashed enthusiasm of many of its more than 6000 delegates assembled there. M. A. C. was represented by Nashville by Messrs. Broome and Allen, and Messrs. White, Ellis and Robinson.

Sunday morning Judge Cabild of Lansing gave an interesting lecture upon the miserable condition of the Jews in the Austro-Hungarian Empire, and told how King Leopold of Belgium had been responsible for this condition, and showed that the United States should move herself to bring forth a better condition of affairs in the Congress.

Instructor Reed and wife have moved into their new home in Oakwoods.

The Ero Alphian society entertained their friends at an 11 o'clock party on Saturday evening, March 3. The rooms were prettily decorated, carrying out the idea of a moonlight party. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gunson and Miss Avery kindly acted as patrons. Everyone reported a good time and the strains of "Home, Sweet Home," came all too soon.

The various processes of different cuts were taken from one mentioned, and in one case seven were explained and the market in cutting up pork. As each carcase was named, the uses to which they were suited, dressing and cutting up the different boys. Mr. Reutter came every Monday morning during the course of the meeting showed that over four-fifths of those present favored incorporation. About fifty persons moved into their new home in Oak Woods.

The very enjoyable gathering was closed in wishing Mr. Hurst good luck in his new work and a great success in his new field of Christian activity.
