TUESDAY, MAY 5, 1908

The man who works with one eye on the clock may soon find that he has time to look for another job.

ONLY a few more weeks and another army of college graduates from this and hundreds of other colleges and universities will be turned out into the world to find their respective, economic positions in the march of human progress. It is far from the purpose of the Record to decry a college education this night, but it is well to remember that the time when a college diploma alone secures a good position or conduct a successful business has long passed. They have become too common property. The value of a college education in dollars and cents is measured only by the earning capacity with which the training invests the graduate. It does not insure freedom from work, but it means a capacity for more and better work. It means that the four years of training is not the end, but the means by which the gradu­ate, if he has made good use of his time and opportunities, will gradually work himself into a position and position in which its value can be realized.

Laying aside the financial value of a college education, there is an­other side, the cultural, which cannot be measured in dollars and cents. A college education is not necessary to the management of large corporations or the making of millions, but it gives a satisfac­tion which many a broad-minded holder would give half his fortune to acquire.

HOME GAME WITH MICHIGAN.

Many Other Hard Games on Next Fall's Schedule.

A home football game with Michi­gan, another game with Wabash in which they will try to turn last fall's defeat into victory, and a game with Notre Dame are among the hard games of next fall's schedule which Coach Brewer gave out at the football meeting held last night. About 30 candidates for next fall's team were out. Coach Brewer, in his address to the students, also stood that good, consistent team work and individual playing will be necessary to secure a schedule through successfully, and that end regular practice will be held on Monday and Friday afternoons with workouts every evening to keep the men familiar with the ball and conversant with the rules of the game. It is expected that the coach will spring some new plays next fall.

Sp. '00-01.

M. P. Willett is now located at Rocky Ford, Colo.

Recent tests of the college seed corn show an average germination of 75 per cent. The corn which was selected and cared for in the best possible manner. Tests of other samples sent in from all over the state show, in most cases, that the average seed corn is very poor. In one case out of every ear of 12 was fit for planting.

A new engineering company composed mostly of M. A. C. men has been formed at Detroit under the name of the Central Engineering Co. S. E. Johnson '04, Ernest F. Hoag '05, O. W. Burke, '05, and M. G. Stephenson, '04, are among the members. At present they are engaged in a four-story building for Eberbach & Son at Ann Arbor.

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

Eight more baseball games this season seven of which are home games.

Remember the debate with the Ypsilanti Normal, Saturday evening, May 24.

Dr. T. W. Nadal of Olivet college filed the pulp it of the People's church last Sunday.

Prof. Taft spoke at a meeting of the Marion Farmers' Club near Howell last Thursday.

Pres. Snyder speaks before the Civic Improvement association at Comstock this evening.

Have you heard the new song and musical "hit" as produced by Comstock this evening.

General Carl Wagner, inspector of Michigan National Guard, was present at the annual analysis, during the past weeks.

Miss Mandie Grant, stenographer to Prof. Taft during the fall of 1906, died last Wednesday in the city hospital at Lansing.

The M. I. A. is again having its troubles. This time it is over the percentage system of deciding the baseball championship.

It's a curious paradox.

Not found in any book.

Just why the man's that fall should wear an entry look.

Instructor James is able to take up his college work after a three weeks' vacation while recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

The debating team are working hard and will put up a good stiff debate. Keep the date open (May 23) and come out and help them win.

L. O. S.-On a College car, Monday 4:30 p.m., a lad's purse containing a sum of money and a car ticket. Finder please leave at secretary's office.

Jeffery now rides a motor cycle. The boys say he is even getting so reckless as to disregard the speed ordinance in the city limits.

Work on the foundation for the new Agricultural Building has been delayed somewhat by the wet condition of the ground where the rear walls are to be laid. The soil there is underlain with quicksand necessitating extra precaution to insure a firm foundation for such a heavy building.

A showy shrub with conspicuous yellow flowers is much in evidence now in the botanic garden, near the west entrance to the campus and at other places about the campus. It is the Forsythia, a native of Japan. This is the second season in 10 years that it has been in full bloom in the beds are ordinarily killed in winter.

On the program of the ninth annual concert of the musical organization of the Lewis Institute we notice the names of P. B. Woodworth, '86, and A. W. Mosely, formerly assistant professor of mechanical engineering, among the cast of characters in the play "In the Reign of Good King Fritz." F. H. Wade, with '09, appears as cornetist in the chorus roll.
