HOLD MICHIGAN TO A SCORELESS TIE

Local Team had the University Eleven at its Mercy.

M. A. C. HAS NEVER YET BEEN BEATEN ON THE HOME FIELD.

The old slogan "Never beaten on the home field!" still holds good in spite of the fact that the great Yost aggregation invaded the M. A. C. camp Saturday. Not only was the Michigan eleven held to a scoreless tie, but it was clearly outclassed by Brewer's all-star team. More than three-fourths of the play was in Michigan's territory. Only four times did the maize and blue make first downs, while the defenders of the olive green repeatedly broke through the weak Michigan line for long gains, netting eight first downs. In punting only were the locals outclassed by Brewer's all-star team.

through the weak Michigan line for long gains, netting eight first downs. In punting only were the locals outclassed by Brewer's all-star team.

One end of the field floated a banner bearing the inscription, "Penn's must be beaten, we are with you!" At 3:05 the whistle sounded and the game was on.

THE FIRST HALF.

Courtright kicked off 50 yards to Green, who returned it 20 yards. Allerdice circled the end for a 60-yard run (the only long run of the game), but Michigan was penalized 15 yards for holding, and failed to make the downs—M. A. C.'s ball. Allen and Exelby were sent through the line for a total of 20 yards and McKenna dropped back for a drop kick. It went wild and Wasmund returned it 10 yards from the goal line. Allerdice punted 50 yards to Courtright, McKenna returned the punt. Michigan fumbled and McKenna fell on the ball. Courtright made a brilliant quarter-back run right returned the punt, Michigan was penalized 15 yards for holding, M. A. C. held and Michigan was forced to punt. Courtright returned the punt to Wasmund, and Michigan then uncorked the forward pass, but without a gain. Again M. A. C. held and Allerdice punted over Courtright's head, and he was downed on M. A. C.'s five-yard line, but punted out of danger. Michigan then tried another pass, which netted 50 yards, and for the only time in the game brought Michigan within striking distance of M. A. C.'s goal. Another pass was attempted, but Frazer grabbed the ball out of the air—M. A. C.'s ball. Courtright gained 15 yards on a fake forward pass, followed by a punt of 30 yards, which relieved the goal. Michigan tried another forward pass, but Frazer was again through the weak Michigan line for long gains, netting eight first downs. In punting only were the locals outclassed by Brewer's all-star team.

over, and Allerdicc was again brought into play with his magic trick. A fair catch and a fifth trial for goal but lost the ball. Allerdicc and from then the battle was almost even. M. A. C. worked the ball down to 45 yards to the middle of the field. Exelby f. b. Edmunds. Wasmond kicked off to Exelbv who ran the ball back 25 minutes. Attendance 6,000. Field judge—Elder of Penn. State. Head linesman—Walter Fishleigh, Michigan. It is difficult to tell just who played the best game. Exelby, Fitzer and Burroughs put up the best secondary defense ever seen on the M. A. C. field. Wheeler and Shulz, each outweighing 250 pounds, played their men to a stand still. Bennett and Campbell held their ground like stone walls, and opened up gaps in the opposition almost at will. Allen, also out-weighted, played with a vengeance, being taken out only toward the latter part of the game after a hard tackle and was replaced by Lee. He was only slightly shaken up, and appeared at superior feeling as well as ever. McKenna and Ober­ right did most creditable work running back punts and in all plays in which they were featured, while Moore booted up serenity and smiling after every scrimmage as if noth­ing had happened.

Burroughs had an ankle slightly turned, and Campbell played almost the entire game with one of the small bones of his hand cracked, but after cleaning up none looked much the worse for wear. In fact they came off the field fresher than many a time after a heavy practice. It was an all-star team with but one thing to be desired—a good punter and drop kicker.

PROF. PETTIT RECEIVES PAINFUL INJURY.

While starting his auto at his office Friday noon, Professor Pettit sustained a painful injury to his wrist from the crank. At first it was not thought to be a serious injury, but Dr. Bruegel, who was called, had x ray photographs taken at the physics department which plainly showed a fracture of one of the bones of the forearm in contact with the wrist. Though the arm is doing nicely the injury is doubly serious with Professor Pet­ tit and his specialty in mind. Allerdicc put to Courtright who made a fair catch but kicked low making a touchback. From then until the end of the game neither side gained particular advantage. Allerdicc occasionally was brought into play from place punting, but either "Mac" or Court­ right would manage to return them far enough to make up for the extra advantage gained. The game ended with the ball on Michigan's 33-yard line. The crowd went wild. No one could hardly realize that Yost's great machine had been held off in a way much less had been out-played. During the game Michigan gained approximately 60 yards and four attempts of punting, and M. A. C. 120 yards.

DEBATING CLUB.

On account of the mass meeting last Thursday evening, the debate scheduled for that meeting had to be postponed. This week the time will be occupied in discussion of the Ypsilanti Debate, and the matter of credits, for those who take part in this debate. Pres. Snyder, Dr. Blaisdel, Prof. Hedrick, Prof. Ry­ der, and Prof. King have kindly consented to be present at the meeting, and to give us their views. Ypsilanti has submitted the question, "Resolved, That corporations doing an Interstate business, should have a Federal Charter, constitution­ ally. We are free to choose which side we will debate. The debate was intended for last week will be held a week from the coming Thursday. The question is, "Resolved, That the existing tariff on lumber, oil and steel should be removed." M. Mason will argue the affirmative, and Mr. F. H. McDermid the negative. Don't forget the time—Thursday evenings in Room 7 College Hall, from 7 to 8 p. m. Everybody invited.

HORT. CLUB.

On Wednesday evening the members of the Hort. club spent a very enjoyable evening listening to a very interesting lecture by Mr. Chas. Shirley on the subject of "The Agricultural Guilds and Universities." Mr. Shirley has been a member of these guilds and understands their work­ ings thoroughly. He defines an Agricultural Guild as an institution where young men, interested in agricultural pursuits may learn the fundamental principles of the practice of agriculture, and at the same time pay their expenses. Many of the young men on these farms are students from the Uni­ versity of Chicago, while others are not in any way connected with it. He believes that the farm guild is filling a long felt want in our edu­ cational institutions and that it offers great opportunities to the young men of the city. Sickel pears were served and a general discussion followed.

SOUTH DAKOTA V. IOWA.

M. A. C. has an "all star" team. The average weight of M. A. C.'s linemen was 183 pounds—Bach­ field, 158 pounds. The team's average was 174 pounds. Reporter, to Coach Yost after the game. "What have you to say about the game?" "Oh, h—, they played rings around us."

Only 12 men were used by each side. Lawson was substituted for Green for Michigan in the second half and Lee took Allen's place towards the close. We were clearly out-played and the only reason we were not whip­ ped was because we had a better pointer and M. A. C. was unforn­ itunately not in as fine form, field goals. Allerdicc was out-punting our man from 30 to 35 yards on each ex­ change but his line on the left wing was a veritable sieve and this was pierced at will."—Axeon Fig­ ured.

At the end of the first half Yost's men walked dejectedly off the field. The famous hurry-up coach, so famous among broad girths, and told them a few pertinent things. But there was "nothing doing." With Shelz and Casey in the game and five weeks of training Michigan still has hopes of getting even with Penn. State. Yost had a condition to work off, however, and Casey had not reported for practice up to the time of the M. A. C. game, so that the team Sat­ urday was the best that Michigan could produce.

The showing made by M. A. C. Saturday demonstrates that a wise move was made when relations were severed with the peanut colleges of the M. I. A. A. - State Repub­ lican.

Father Branchau of St. Mary's church, Lansing, spoke in chapel Sunday to the students of St. Mary's parish. On the second Sunday of November Father Branchau will again visit the college to speak in chapel to the Catholic students. A Jesuit priest will accompany Father Branchau on this occasion and will also speak. It is hoped that all the Catholic students especially will be at this meeting. All are welcome.

Alma College is having football troubles akin to those of M. A. C. last year. Both Ypsilanti and Lakeview, A. C. have cancelled their games which makes Alma's schedule a light one.

Dean Glichrist and her sister Norma, entertained informally at the parsons of the Women's Building Monday afternoon for their mother, Mrs. H. C. Glichrist, of Lorain, Iowa.

President and Mrs. Snyder delightfully entertained the members of the teaching force at a reception Tuesday evening given for the purpose of introducing the new members.

About 150 members of the faculty and instructors and their wives were present. In the receiving line were President and Mrs. Snyder, Professor and Mrs. Eustace, Professor and Mrs. Wilson, and Professor and Mrs. French. The professors in charge of several departments assisted in introducing the instructors under their charge.

The decorations were chrysanthemums in the parlors and pink and white roses and carnations in the dining room. Throughout the evening music was rendered by Miss Hopson and Miss Michaelides.

The marriage of Mr. H. Z. Kinball and Cecile Mary Ahlen occurred at the home of the bride's parents Oct. 7. They will be at home to their friends after Dec. 1 at 214 Geddes street, Detroit.
