CADET REGIMENT TAKES PART IN DETROIT PARADE.

The cadet regiment went to Detroit Monday to take part in the Memorial Day parade, and from all reports they did an excellent job. A special train of ten coaches left the college at about 11 o'clock, reaching Detroit at 1:30. Immediately upon arrival, the companies were formed and marched up Port street, where they took part in the regular exercises. Following the parade an exhibition drill was given which was highly complimented. The return train left Detroit a little before 12 o'clock, reaching the college a little before 4 Tuesday morning.

DUTCH PICNIC.

On Wednesday, May 26th, occurred one of the most enjoyable gatherings the "Deutsche Verein" has held during the college year. At about 3:30 the members of the society, together with Miss Nora Gilliher, Miss Freyholz, Dr. Rahn and Mr. Hensel, who kindly acted as patrons, gathered on the bank east of farm lane for a genuine German picnic.

After demolishing a real picnic supper, everyone took form in for a good time. Races, songs and stories were the order and when the time came to return, happy bunch gatherings the "Deutsche Verein." Last year the Seniors won and this year the "Deutsche Verein" is predicted or lost; courage, in a supreme moment, never to become impotent. Money is squandered than this.

FACULTY—SENIOR BALL.

The annual Faculty—Senior ball game will be played on college field Saturday afternoon. Dean Shaw will captain the highbrow team, last year the Senators won and this year the Faculty will go in for revenge. It is rumored that some of the old time stars are taking active practice in preparation for this year's game.

PERSONAL PURITY.

... to pray, 'Lead us not into temptation,' to seek with eyes wide open to walk into the presence of temptation, or say, 'Deliver us from evil, and deliberately go and do the things which are evil. We do not want to be delivered. We are not to pray for personal purity and then bathe the eyes of the soul. Neither shall any other power can keep us clean if we do. It is likened in praying to be delivered from sin, and love being the power of victory.

And purity is kept first of all by ourselves avoiding all impurities. We do not mean, as has already been indicated, that one should go and live every one's self in a monastery for we are needed in the world, but though in the world we are not to be of the world but in the midst of delusion we are not to partake of it.

... as a river in Switzerland, we believe it is, which flows into a lake at one end and a dirty, muddy stream, but when it flows into the other end it is a river clear as crystal. All its impurities it leaves and leaves in the lake through which it flows. So when our lives are allowed to flow into Christ's life, however impure it may be, because of hereditary taints and race and inferior will quality it comes out of his life purified, cleansed, a river, as it were pure as crystal.

... and now notice the further fact that purity is easily lost. It may be marred and effaced at the slightest touch, and when thus marred can never be made beautiful again. There is nothing which leaves so deep a mark upon the soul as uncleanness and impurity. It extinguishes love, deadens the sensibilities, and its penalties are not only unbearable but inexpressible.

... new words have been written through those which Robert Burns, with his heart and life, in some cities and communities and temptations are for no man can be made a blessing, but ordinarily better... if thou wilt be a hero, and will strive to help thy fellow in all others' souls. Thy feet at last shall stand on jasper floors, thy heart at last shall see a thousand hearts.

... 'Keep thyself pure,' with emphasis it. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."
