THE M.A.C. RECORD

Vol. XXIII. East Lansing, Michigan, Friday, November 30, 1917. No. 11

SERVICE FLAG UNFURLED.

M. A. C.'s honor roll of nearly 500 names is now represented by a service flag, which was first seen by the student body when it was unfurled at the mass meeting last Friday night. A thrill of pride went through the assemblage, as the band played "The Star Spangled Banner," and the big flag dropped from its curling. Some eyes were wet and more were choked with emotion when the crowd realized that for each of the 468 stars then on the flag there is an M. A. C. man somewhere "out there" in the service of his country. The flag was again shown at the Syracuse game last Saturday, where it was greeted with the National Anthem from the band, and a chorus of cheers from the bleachers.

The stars are of blue felt placed on a 4x8 white field, which is surrounded by a two foot margin of red. This makes the flag eight feet wide by 12 feet long, the entire background being of broadcloth. Sufficient room is left on the white field to add more stars as the reports come in that other M. A. C. men have responded to the call of the Nation and of Democracy.

The college is indebted to several of the instructors in the Home Economics department, Mrs. Peppard, Miss Casho, Miss Smiley, Miss Biglow, Miss Stoll, Miss Clemens, and Miss Hunt for their work in making this beautiful emblem of honor and loyalty. The flag will be hung in the library but will be available at any time for decoration for college functions.

COLLEGE HALL TO BE RESTORED.

At the November meeting of the State Board of Agriculture action was taken to begin work at once for the restoration of College Hall. The work is to be placed in charge of a contractor and the work done by the day. Architect Bowd has been directed to make plans for the work and a committee of alumni will soon be appointed to oversee and watch the progress of the restoration.

In the action of the board it was specified that the exterior and chapel are to be left just as they are. The Board's action comes as the result of a hard and persistent fight by alumni and former students. Much of the credit for the winning of the long fight is due to the efforts of the late Prof. Gulley, '86, Judge Carpenter, '79, Henry Haigh, '74, and John Beaumont, '87.

MICHIGAN MEETING OF ASS'N OF COLLEGIATE ALUMNAE.

The State Conference of the Michigan Branches of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae was held here Friday and Saturday, November 23d and 24th. Afternoon tea was served at the Woman's Building Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. At 6:30 a banquet was served at the Senior House, during which music was furnished by the Demis Trio. The banquet was followed by an address, "The College Woman's Work," by Mrs. Gertrude S. Martin, of Ithaca, N. Y., executive secretary of the Association.

The Saturday morning meeting was held at the Plymouth Congregational church in Lansing, beginning at 9 o'clock. A general survey of A. C. A. was given by Mrs. Martin and Mrs. F. N. Scott, state secretary, followed by a round table discussion by delegates from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Kalamazoo and Lansing.

The principle address of the morning meeting was given by Mrs. Lois Kimball Matthews, National president of A. C. A. and dean of women at the University of Wisconsin, on the subject of "A. C. A. and the War." She said in part:

"War has always brought to women great opportunities, great obligations and great privileges. The reason we are now college women is because of the great conflicts that have taken place in the past. Vassar college was established in 1865, and other institutions of higher learning opened their doors to women after the Civil War. The colleges and universities came into being for women to prepare them to take their places in the schools where they were needed and in the places that the men could no longer take.

"If we don't win this war we shall have lost the finest things for which women strive. We must say to people: "We must stay in this war until the fight for democracy is settled. We must look beyond the war. This war is for peace. We are in it to fight and to win, and then when it is over we will stand with the forces to police the world for peace."

Music was furnished at this meeting by Mrs. Roy Moore and the Matinee Musical Quintette. Luncheon was served at 12:30.

The Lansing Branch has a membership of about 70. The officers are Miss Norma Gilchrist, president; Miss Nina Bristol, vice-president; Miss Ethel E. Mosher, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. R. C. Huston, councillor, Miss Antonette Robson and Miss Emma Lott, directors.

LANSING ALUMNI PLAN "WAR DINNER."

In honor of the football team and Mr. Brewer, and the splendid showing made in the face of such heavy odds during the past season Lansing and Central Michigan alumni are planning a war dinner for themselves and the college teaching force early in December. The central Michigan body feels that they should let the team know how alumni feel over the splendid spirit they showed during the season and also they wish to create an occasion for the bringing together and meeting of the entire teaching force of the college.

The economy of the "war dinner" they have in mind will be made up for in the lavishness of the speaking program which will include only "topnotchers." As soon as plans are complete announcements will follow.

THE FOOTBALL SEASON.

With the Syracuse game Saturday there was brought to a close the most remarkable football season in M. A. C. history. For never before has such ill luck followed an M. A. C. team throughout its entire season. Never before have we failed to win a single game on the schedule; never before has a team playing a season of hard luck put up such a battle as a climax, and never has the student body shown such loyal and unyielding support to a team and followed it as faithfully through one loss after another to the referee's whistle of the last lost game.

Of the students' support to the team Director Brewer says, "In the entire history of college athletics there has been no finer display of a student body's backing the team than was shown here at M. A. C. this fall."

Wins in one game and losses in another, many men have been forced to give up their classes for convenience in finding college credits for the fighting finish we made. And the team and the student body deserve it for they have made a wonderful showing, a showing we may all well be proud of.

Winning teams don't go hand in hand with starry service flags.

A CHRISTMAS LETTER.

The revised list of men in service is being reprinted again at this particular time for a particular reason. The Christmas season is approaching and Christmas spirit and M. A. C. spirit ought to go hand in hand to our men "over there" and in the camps of America. There is nothing that will carry more of the Christmas spirit to our fellows than a real cheery Christmas letter and there is nothing that will bring M. A. C. and college memories nearer and dearer than a cheer letter from a college friend or classmate. There is much to be said to those of the M. A. C. family "out there." There is much of the Christmas cheer of the good old M. A. C. kind that can be crammed into a letter that will ride for a three-cent stamp.

The list has been rearranged by classes for convenience in finding college friends. Every man on the list ought to receive one Christmas letter from the M. A. C. home folks. Men in France deserve several. It takes three weeks for letters to reach France.

There will just be time if you write it today.

Because of Thanksgiving the Record is one day late this week.

FARM JOURNALISTS JOIN RECORD STAFF.

useful experience in the gathering and handling of news stories, while the Record editor will be relieved thereby of considerable routine reporting work and will be given more time for editing and constructive work. One at a time members of the class will be taken to the printers to help in the "make up" of the type matter and learn something of the mechanical side of journalism. The news assignments as they are written up will be read and graded by Mr. Hasselman before they are turned over to the Record. It is hoped that the scheme will work out advantageously to both of us and that it may become a permanent arrangement.

HOME COMING EVENTS.

From the standpoint of attendance the annual homecoming was not all that it was desired although no doubt it was as much as could be expected in such times as these. It is estimated that about 250 came out for the game although those registered were only a few over 100. A large aggregation from Camp Custer, M. A. C. officers and men and followers of the 310th Ambulance football team who played the all-fresh team added their part to the home-coming contingent.

THE MASS MEETING.

The opening number of the Home Coming program, the "Old Timers" mass meeting, on Friday evening, November 25, was one of the largest and most successful football pop fests yet held in the Armory. Quite a number of alumni were present. The yell-masters, Tommy Dee and Bill McKnight, and the band were the centers of attraction for some time until the regular program started.

As is the annual custom each of the men's "dorms" put on a little vaudeville performance. The Holy Roller Society of M. A. C. from Abbot Hall staged a prayer meeting in which the leader cleverly quoting the scripture to his purpose, "invoked the powers for a victory on the morrow as a fitting conclusion to the seven practice games of the season." Williams Hall, which is largely a freshman stronghold this year, put on a spirited boxing match between Kid M. A. C. a lightweight, and 250-pound Kid Syrian. Neighbors to say the visiting oujist was knocked out in the fourth quarter.

Wells Hall brought forth a Bijou conducted by a master of ceremonies in full dress and consisting of every-- thing from painted ladies to stolid wielders of the knitting needle. A Jazz Band, Minstrel Troupe, and two dance numbers in costume (?) were features.

At the conclusion of the stunts F. A. Davis, president of the Student council, introduced Mr. Howard Ratner, '17, as toastmaster. Rather first called upon "Jimmie" Hasselman, "faculty bell-hop," to represent the faculty. The popular English instructor owed to the correctness of the "bell-hop" appellation for as he said he was paying for President Kidzke and Professor French, both of whom failed to appear as scheduled.

Clarence E. Holmes, '93, the next speaker, tinctured his crisp oratory on college spirit with some reminiscences. Calling attention to the frequent and prominent displaying of "bottles," by the Williams Hallites in their stunt he remarked that he was glad to know that Williams Hall was still "wet" but in his time they had it mostly in sacks, and that it was never dry under the windows.

At the conclusion of Mr. Holmes' speech a service flag, 8x12 feet, carrying nearly 500 stars, was unfurled while the band played "The Star Spangled Banner." Judge Collingwood, '85, fired his hearers with enthusiasm for remarks. Weil who is now president of the Student Council, referred to by almost everyone of the speakers.

Captain Coryell, whose football career ended with the Syracuse game, sincerely thanked the student body for the very loyal support the team received at their hands during the entire season. In the absence of Coach Brewer, trainer "Jimmy" Dugan was called upon and responded in a manner characteristic of the "big league" trainer.

The meeting ended with a short yell practice and a selection by the band.

THE HOME COMING LUNCHEON.

About 100 enthusiastic Home-comers attended the alumni luncheon Saturday noon, November 24. Following a reception and get-together in the Union Literary house, the assemblage went down to a club style lunch in Club D. Judge Collingwood took charge of the meeting in the absence of President Prudden who could not leave his duties as coal administrator. Because of the early time set for the football game, it was necessary to hurry the program a little more than was desired.

President Kidzke, A. C. Burnham, '93, Mrs. E. W. Ranney, '99, J. W. Beaumont, '82, and Capt. Walter Wright, '17 of Camp Custer, responded to the toastmaster's call for short talks after which all joined in singing America. The service flag hung at one end of the dining room and was referred to by almost everyone of the speakers.

IN HARD Fought 7-7 Battle SY­RACUSE WINS 21-7.

About 300 homecomers saw an exhibition of the old M. A. C. fighting spirit on College Field Saturday when M. A. C. fought Syracuse a battle in which the score should have been 7-7, but which finally stood on the board 21-7 in favor of Syracuse. As the final whindup of a season of mishaps and ill luck, Brewer's men came back in the last game for the hardest battle they have fought this season.

Although outweighed twenty-five pounds per man they made consistent gains both in line plunging and end running and held Syracuse as no one dreamed they would be able to do. A. C. playing splendid straight football, a stonewall line of defense, and a spirit and a stonewall line of defense.

In the first quarter Hammeck kicked off to Steel and Syracuse advanced the ball for two first downs, but was down in the middle of the field. A see-saw game followed, which was suddenly terminated toward the end of the quarter when Meehan recovering a fumble, slipped and rolled his way down the field for seventy-five yards for a touchdown, which he followed with a successful goal kick. This first score by the opponents had the effect of firing the old comeback spirit and a stonewall line of defense was immediately put against Syracuse, Bassett and Snider carried the ball for two first downs when it came in their possession and Archer made a splendid pass to Ramsey who dropped behind the goal line for M. A. C.'s first touchdown. Hammeck kicked goal.

Early in the third quarter with M. A. C. playing splendid straight football a fumbled pass to Ramsey was grabbed up by Swartzer who ran sixty yards for a touchdown, which was immediately put against Syracuse.

Following this M. A. C. quickly acquired the ball kicked to Syracuse, but lost it to Brown who with an interference of half the orange eleven ran forty yards for a third touchdown. The score, 21-7.

Even though the fourth quarter began under a cloud of twenty-one points M. A. C. fought hard for the game. Snider's playing was a feature of this quarter both in stopping Syracuse and runs and line plunges and in carrying... the ball himself. Just before the end of the game he had to be taken out because of injury. The end came after a 50-56 fight in the middle of the field.

Preliminary to the varsity game the all-fresh played the 311th Ambulance Corps from Camp Custer and won in the last quarter by a score of 64. About 60 of the ambulance men accompanied the team from Camp Custer and belted against the quarters of the varsity game put on a drill around the field. They were followed by the M. A. C. band. A clown “jazz” band also put on several stunts between halves. Just before the beginning of the second half a company of M. A. C. girls in green sweaters and white skirts gave a short exhibition drill which was followed by the unfurling of the new college service flag. This feature was very impressive.

The afternoon play showed that in the making of first downs M. A. C. made it nine times out of eighteen possible chances, while Syracuse made it only partially available, they are not being included but will be announced later.

The earnest cooperation of every M. A. C. man and woman is asked to help us keep the list complete and up to date. If you know of an M. A. C. man anywhere in service send in his name and class even if you do not know his location. We can often get help from his home address.

For convenience the list has been rearranged by classes. And don’t fail to write someone “out there” a Christmas letter.

THE WAR LIST.

The list of men in service now number 650 is printed at this time with an appeal to you of the M. A. C. family at home for a Christmas cheer letter for our fellows with the colors. Although 200 names have been added since the last publication of the roster six weeks ago it is still far from complete and we know it. Further apology is unnecessary.

Students are leaving college at the rate of ten to twelve a week to enlist. Many of these men are not included because they have not yet been heard from or have not been assigned. Inasmuch as the results of the officers training camps and the assignments of successful candidates are only partially available, they are not being included but will be announced later.

Buy what you need—don't stint—don't be wasteful.

It sounds paradoxical, but is not. This store has gone ahead as usual and restocked for the coming season with the necessities needful to its patrons. Prices on various things have risen, on others we have, by foresight, been able to purchase and keep the prices normal. Assortments are better than ever and this year we know you will find that the service of this store has risen another notch—FORWARD.

May we enjoy the pleasure of serving you this season?
