AN EPIDEMIC IN LANSING, arising from impure water caused considerable sickness there the past two weeks. At the time that conditions had reached their worst stage in Lansing there was some evidence that the East Lansing water supply might be contaminated and a notice was sent out to East Lansingites by Health Officer Bruegel that all water must be boiled. However, no sickness occurred in East Lansing that was traceable to our own water supply. A Detroit paper commented on the Lansing epidemic this way: "Quite a number of Lansing people are sick as the result of drinking water, but then, almost any one is likely to make a mistake once in his life."

A DEPOSIT of $40.00, which is the price of a complete army uniform is now being required by the military department of every R. O. T. C. man. This deposit represents a bond between the college and the individual, for although the government will give all men taking the R. O. T. C. work a uniform free the deposit is required as a protection to the college who are accountable to the government while the uniform is worn during the term. While the men are drilling and taking R. O. T. C. work this spring the uniform will be the property of the Federal government, but at the completion of the term's work the uniform will become the property of the student at which time the deposit will be refunded.

THE VICTORY WOLVERINE, the monthly bulletin of the Michigan State Board of Health, contains in the March issue an article by Elizabeth L. Parker, health specialist of the extension department on "The Home Economics Extension Department of the Michigan Agricultural College." In the bulletin Miss Parker discusses the work being carried on by the Home Economics Extension branch, particularly that pertaining to health and hygiene and home nursing. A section of it also is devoted to the department's work with Red Cross classes in elementary hygiene and home care of the sick.

THE M. A. C. RECORD

THE DETROIT CLUB.

We wish that every alumni and former student could have attended the membership rally of the Detroit Club and gotten the spirit of reconstruction and rejuvenation of M. A. C. that pervaded its atmosphere.

The Detroit Club is simply a new organization behind an old and long established alumni body. They are rebuilding on the principle that the associations that bind them together are very much worth while. They have made a membership fee of $5.00 a year, with the idea that those who have M. A. C. in their hearts will want to become members anyway, and that the more that is put in the more interest will be taken and the more benefit each will get from the organization.

The leaders started with the idea that they would rather have a few members and have them alive and active than to have them all and get only half way toward their goal. But evidently the leaders failed to size up Detroit M. A. C. people correctly for they are enrolling them all and members are coming in on a very live and active basis.

The constitution of the Detroit Club announces four gatherings a year and failure to live up to the constitution in that respect they say will only mark the inefficiency of their officers and the need of their being replaced rather than a disintegration of the organization or the failure of its purposes.

From the success with which the officers and committees in Detroit are meeting it is evident that the Detroit Club has the right idea and is on the right trail. Very soon they will become an alumni unit of real power.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN ALUMNI MEETING BRISK.

Pass Resolutions for Campaign for Memorial Building.

Passing resolutions favoring a Union Memorial Building and with constructive discussions, brightening speeches and a most enjoyable social evening the Central Michigan M. A. C. Alumni gathered for its eighth annual meeting in the Woman's Club House, in Lansing, Tuesday evening, March 25th.

The affair began with a reception in the parlors and at 7:15 a dinner was served, the men waiting table. One of the innovations during the meal was the introducing of each alumni, in which he or she arose and gave his name, class, occupation, and introduced any guests whom he might have with him.

A very interesting business session followed the meeting. The memorial system was discussed briefly by Judge Collingwood and Hooden. 89, and E. E. Gallup, '22. Judge Collingwood was strong in his endorsement of the supervised dormitory. Mr. Gallup's motion, "that it be the sense of this association that the dormitory system at M. A. C. be continued," was unanimously passed.

Judge Collingwood introduced the resolutions proposing and endorsing a campaign for funds for a Union Memorial Building to be erected in commemoration of those of the college, numbering 1,250, who have served the country in the world war and to do honor and memorialize the thirty college alumni and students who gave their lives in the struggle. The resolution, which was prepared by W. O. Hedrick, '21, is printed in another column of the Record.

An important business feature brought down the meeting was presented by Fred Radford, '01, and was that proposing a monthly luncheon of Lansing and Central Michigan Alumni. Mr. Radford was appointed chairman of a committee to arrange for monthly luncheons and it is probable that they will be held at the Hotel Kerns.

The officers for the coming year elected were Luther Baker, '23, president; vice president, Mrs. Thomas Gunnison, '12; secretary and treasurer, Earl Hotchins, '12. Following the business the meeting was turned over to N. A. Myhre, '10, of the East Lansing People's Church, who acted as toastmaster. President Kedzie picturered very vividly several incidents occurring at M. A. C. during the civil war and during the present war period. Mr. Kedzie, 1909, the speaker of the evening, told of the "Problems, Impressions and Incidents of Overseas Service." Major Frazer was with a big gun organization and took part in a number of the most important battles of the summer and fall. Prof. French was unable to appear on the program because of illness.

Captain Earl C. Douglass, '12, who was in Lansing, for a day or two and was a guest at the meeting, was called on for a few extemporaneous remarks and gave a very interesting and humorous account of some of his personal experiences in France and on the firing line. Both Major Frazer and Capt. Douglass were members of a coast artillery branch, although Douglass has now been discharged from service and introduced himself as "out of a job." Ray Turner, '09, led a number of songs and yells during the meeting. A very enjoyable dancing party followed the banquet.

A committee of five men from the Central Michigan Association to forward the campaign for the Memorial Building is now being selected by President Baker.

25TH ANNIVERSARY OF '93, POSTPONED, TO BE HELD IN JUNE.

The class of 1893 are planning to hold their 25th anniversary reunion, which was scheduled to have been celebrated last commencement time, on the campus this year. The twenty-fifth birthday of the class was postponed last year because of war conditions, but members of the class who are sponsoring the reunion declare that it can be held this year just the same even though it is twelve months late.

Elmer B. Hale who was President of '93 at the time of graduation, and Dwight S. Cole are organizing the class for the reunion celebration. Mr. Hale is taking active charge of the arrangements and asks that all '93 men get in touch with him as soon as possible. His address is 211 Division Ave., Grand Rapids, Michigan.

DETROIT CLUB STRONG FOR NEW BUILDINGS.

Largest and Most Enthusiastic Branch Ass'n Gathering Ever Held.

Three hundred enthusiastic Michigan Aggies of Detroit met Friday evening, March 28th in the Detroit Board of Commerce for the first general gathering of the Detroit-M. A. C. Club and a membership rally. President Kedzie declared it was the largest meeting of its kind ever held. The Detroit Club has now come into being as one of the liveliest of the local alumni associations and is building up its membership with a goal of 400 in view. Already the 300-mark has been reached. The meeting was a very enthusiastic and jolly one and M. A. C. spirit ran high.

A reception in the library of the Board of Commerce was given at 7:30 and dinner was served in the auditorium at eight. During the dinner
RESOLUTIONS FOR THE UNION MEMORIAL BUILDING.

At their annual meeting March 25, the Central Michigan M. A. C. Association passed the following resolutions. They were prepared by W. O. Hedrick, '91, and presented by Judge Collingwood, '83. The Detroit M. A. C. Club were unanimously in their endorsement of the resolutions at their meeting March 28.

Whereas, every great crisis in human affairs should have its own particular and appropriate memorial, and

Whereas, one of the indispensable requirements of our Alma Mater is a building sufficient for the purposes of the M. A. C. Union, a building which would serve as a community center, where students, teachers and members of the Alumni Association may have a common meeting place.

Therefore, be it resolved, that this Association go on record as favoring such a building to stand as a permanent memorial, to commemorate the sacrifices of the sons and daughters of this college, who have on the battle front, in camp, on the farm and in the shop performed their part in the mighty struggle from which America has emerged triumphant; and especially to commemorate those splendid men who offered themselves as a sacrifice that these United States of America might remain a firm and sure foundation for civilization, and, further, that a permanent committee of five be appointed to forward the building of such a memorial.

We believe that M. A. C. deserves well of the people of the State of Michigan; that its services and power, long but partly recognized, are now appreciated and will be increasingly demanded, and adequately supported.

We believe that the Legislature of Michigan will "do itself proud" to promptly provide means to erect appropriate halls of learning to crown the new vacant eminence on the beautiful campus of our beloved Alma Mater—adequate, substantial and imposing structures that shall stand as an inspiration to future students and to all beholders, and be a fitting monument to Michigan and her agricultural and mechanical industry, and consequent progress, prosperity, happiness and wealth.

We ask that every member of our Association make known to his or her representative in the State Legislature the needs of M. A. C. for new commodious college buildings.

We instruct the members of this meeting to make the action taken here tonight known to the Legislature of Michigan in the most effective way.

And finally we pledge our individual, collective and continuous efforts to secure for our Alma Mater this great, commendable, just and pressing need.

Following the dinner, tables were cleared and a most enjoyable evening spent in dancing.

DETOIT GIRLS PLAN SATURDAY NOON LUNCH.

The women graduates of M. A. C. living in Detroit and vicinity are making arrangements for a Saturday noon luncheon at which they may all meet and renew M. A. C. acquaintances. Mrs. Janice Morrison Zettel '17 144 Biddle Ave., Wyandotte, Michigan is sponsoring the movement and is making plans to get the Detroit girls together weekly. Miss Margaret Steven in Mt. Clemens, Birmingham, Pontiac, Ford City, and other adjoining places, as well as those of Detroit, are asked to communicate with Mrs. Zettel, and make known their wishes as to the best time and the most convenient place for the luncheons.

MAJOR FRAZER MISQUOTED.

An article appearing on page 5 of the March 27 issue of the Record misquoted a paragraph from Major Frazer's talk before a Masonic audience in Lansing. The quotation was taken from the State Journal of Lansing and represents, in the Record we have learned from Major Frazer that he was grossly misquoted on that occasion.

Dwight T. Ewing, who was assistant professor of chemistry at M. A. C. from 1914-1918, is now a research assistant in chemistry at the University of Chicago. His address is 6326 Kenwood Ave.
PORTLAND OREGON ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING.

The Ninth Annual Reunion of the Portland M. A. C. Alumni Association was held at the home of J. L. Shaw on the evening of February 22d, 1919. A splendid banquet was served by Mrs. Shaw and a very enjoyable evening was spent in college reminiscences and recounting later experiences.

The following list of former students and friends were present:

- C. S. English, '88, Mrs. C. S. English;
- W. F. Staley, '88, Mrs. W. F. Staley;
- H. E. Weed, '89, Mrs. Weed;
- Mrs. F. E. Mangold; A. B. Stevens, '96, Mrs. K. B. Stevens; Gordon Stuart, '96, Mrs. Gordon Stuart; Miss Elizabeth Gillott; R. G. Scofield, '07, Mrs. R. G. Scofield; A. F. Douglas, '08, Mrs. A. F. Douglas; A. W. Wilcox, '08, Miss Wilcox, Mrs. Hoover; J. L. Shaw, '10, Mrs. J. L. Shaw; E. E. Faville, '10, P. E. Kuenzel, '14; Mrs. Mae (Bartlett) Kuenzel, '14.

President J. L. Shaw called a business meeting and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

- J. V. Gongwer, '08, president;
- John Decker, '04, vice-president;
- C. W. Bale, '00, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. H. E. Weed extended an invitation to all members to meet for a picnic at his Peony Ranch near Benton in the near future, which was accepted.

We believe that there are a number of M. A. C. Alumni and former students now in Oregon whom we have no record. If there are any such who see this notice we shall be pleased to hear from them, so that we may welcome them to our gatherings and picnics.

THREE M. A. C. LEGISLATORS WORK FOR FARM INTERESTS.

The present term of the Michigan Legislature has among its members in the House of Representatives three M. A. C. men: E. O. Ladd, '78, of Grand Traverse county; Henry T. Ross, '04, of Livingston county; and Robert N. Wallace, '08, of Huron county, all agriculturalists and interested in the advancement of Michigan's farming interests.

This is Mr. Ladd's first term in the House of Representatives. He is a member of the Agricultural College Committee, the committee on Education and the committee for the Michigan School for the Blind. Mr. Ladd introduced and has had passed in the House an act to prevent the importation from other states and the spread within this state of dangerous insects and dangerous diseases affecting trees, shrubs, vines, plants and fruits, etc.

Representative Ross, '04, is serving his third term in the State Legislature, and while introducing bills is not his hobby he is very much interested in laws for agricultural interests, being a farmer himself and coming from an agricultural county. Mr. Ross regards the main issue as appropriations affecting M. A. C. and was instrumental in 1915 in getting the one-fifth mill tax which has been so favorable in a financial way for the college. He has hopes that the Legislature or the State Board of Equalization will come to M. A. C.'s rescue this year. He introduced the bill for an appropriation for agricultural extension work at the college.

Representative Ross is chairman of the Kalamazoo State Hospital committee and a member of the committee on Elections and State affairs, and the Western State Normal School. His bill to do away with the State Fish commission, an unpaid committee, whose appointment is honorary, and who are considered for that reason as not entirely effective was recently defeated on the floor of the House, by a very close vote.

Representative Robert N. Wallace, with '08, was the introducer of the appropriation bill for the new library and administration building at M. A. C. Beside this bill, which is the main issue still in the committee, he is the author of four other bills; one permitting the spearing of fish on the Great Lakes, another compelling the labelling of sugar, and still another very important from the agricultural standpoint—that to prevent the spreading of contagious diseases among live stock.

Mr. Wallace entered with the class of 1908 but was obliged to leave the spring of 1906 as a result of a football injury received the previous fall. Upon leaving college he entered business and is now president of the Saginaw Bay Fish Company, the Bayport Fish Company, the Wallace & Morley Company, the latter of which owns and operates six grain elevators and a general store. He is also secretary, treasurer and manager of the Wallace Stone Company, secretary and treasurer of the Campbell Stone Co., vice-president of the Bayport Bank, and is manager and part owner of a stock farm, which has a little over 1,800 acres under cultivation.

These three M. A. C. men are doing...
EX-PRESIDENT TAFT AT M. A. C.

Ex-President William H. Taft, the first of the real great members of the Republican party to support President Wilson in his peace proposals, gave a very masterful address before the largest crowd that has yet assembled in the gymnasium on "A League of Nations," Wednesday evening. Mr. Taft is generally conceded as one of the most open-minded and one of the greatest men of the age, and his message on the world league before an audience of 1,700, over half of which were citizens of Lansing and East Lansing was received with enthusiasm and acclaim.

Mr. Taft arrived in Lansing Wednesday afternoon and spoke before the assembled legislature in the House of Representatives soon after his arrival. He was met and escorted to the capitol by the M. A. C. band.

The lecture was given as a number of the Liberal Arts lecture course and is the biggest single entertainment that the Liberal Arts Committee have brought to the college in several years. Mr. Taft was scheduled to appear last term but was forced to discontinue M. A. C. because of the necessity of his attendance with President Wilson at the famous conference held in the Metropolitan Opera House in New York on the eve of the president's second departure for the peace conference.

J. HOP THIS WEEK.

The annual Junior Prom of the class of 1920 being held Friday of this week marks the bringing back of social activities at M. A. C. to a normal basis. Final arrangements were made long in advance although actual preparations and decorations could not be started until after the Taft lecture on Wednesday night, the decorating committee being handicapped somewhat on this account.

A formal reception will be held at the Woman's Building beginning at 5:00 o'clock. The banquet served in Club C and a section of it in the Senior House will begin at 6:00. This with the toasts is expected to last until about 9:30 when dancing will start in the gymnasium. Stanley Johnson and Miss Laura Collingwood, president and vice president of the class respectively, will lead the grand march, along with Miss Harriet Wilder and Mr. Leon L. Bateman.

The patrons are President and Mrs. Kedzie; Misses Margaret Brown; Miss Howard, Dean Emmonds and Miss Yakeley with their guests. The guests of honor are governor and Mrs. Sleeper; Athletic Director Brewer; Coach and Mr. Gauthier; M. C. B. and Mrs. and Mrs. C. W. McKibbin; Y. Hammond and L. Archer, the class presidents and the captains and managers of the more important athletic teams. Balcony tickets are being sold that will permit outsiders to witness this year's function. Shook's ten-piece orchestra of Detroit will furnish dinner and dance music.

CONFERENCE OF HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENTS THIS WEEK.

Thirty home demonstration agents and home economics specialists are holding a conference this week in the parlors of the Woman's Building with the leaders of the home economics extension work at M. A. C. and representatives from Washington. This is the first conference of demonstration agents and home economics specialists from the entire state and is the first meeting of extension workers since the department has been increased to its present size.

Miss Florence E. Ward, who is in charge of extension work with women from the office of extension work north and west, State Superintendent of Service, Washington, D. C., was in attendance at the meeting Tuesday and Wednesday, and Miss Miriam Birdseye, an extensionist from the same office, will be attending the entire week's conference. Twenty-one county home demonstration agents and five who are working in cities are attending.

On Tuesday evening the girls attending the conference were entertained by Miss Edna Smith, '03, state leader of home demonstration agents, and Miss May Persomi, who is in charge of home economics extension, in their apartment at the Wildwood. A picnic supper was served in the parlors of the Woman's Building on Wednesday evening and following it the extensionists attended the Taft lecture in a body. On Thursday evening they were given a theater party for the performance of David Warfield in Lansing.

Beside the leaders, Miss Person, Miss Smith and Dean Edmonds, those attending the conference are:

Extension Specialists—Misses Helen Arms, Coral Havens, w'05, Mabel Rogers, '10, Annabel Campbell, Ransdell.

Assistant State Leaders—Misses Elva R. Davis, '05, Aurelia Potts, '12; and Misses May Foley, '18, Monominee County; Helen Simonson, Dickinson; Helen C. Pratt, '15, Clare County; Florence E. McIlhenney, Houghton; Jennie Williams, Schoolcraft and Alger; Sylvia Richardson, Delta; Lou Butler, '17, Mason; Bessee Rogers, '14, Wayne; Clara Taylor, Gladwin; F. McKinzie, '15, Manistee; Bernice Woodworth, '17, Allegan; Grace Hitchcock, '16, Ottawa; Clara Waldron, '13, St. Clair; Laverne Jones, '16, St. Joseph; Beatrice Clarke, Kalamazoo; Eve Corrett, Cass; Bessee Turner, '16, Berrien; Margaret E. Erikson, '15, Grand Rapids; Nina Streeter, Saginaw; Osee Hughes, Detroit; Mrs. Kathryn Beekman, Flint; Rose Hogue, '15, Saginaw County.
DR. BEAL REPLY TO OUR BIRTHDAY LETTER.

Dear Friends of the Alumni:

The storm of March 11 has passed by with a shower of telegrams and letters of congratulation, nearly seventy in number, not including greetings given in person, every one of which is worthy of a full and prompt reply by your greatful friend.

I am embarrassed by the fact that my penmanship has been so bad that nearly forty years ago a friend was frank to say that if he received a postal card from Dr. Beal on Saturday, it worried him all day Sunday to read it.

Permit me to reply to all by a uniform letter. One of the chief pleasures of my life is the thought of the students, now scattered in many parts of our great country, in whose growth I had a share.

I wintered well without colds or influenza. I sawed ten cords of wood and placed it in the cellar, cared for and trap-nested fifty White Wyandottes, kept up gymnastics for twenty-five minutes a day. I never was an athlete, never enjoyed vacations, but preferred to work on holidays. I have enjoyed good health most of my life, yet, if examined by an expert, he would not fail to find some blemishes.

I read a lot of papers and magazines, half the time without the use of spectacles. In season I work around in the garden and run a lawn mower more or less. In various ways I am exceptionally fortunate in my home with my daughter and grandchildren. I wrote up the biographies of my class of forty last year, and the text was mimeographed. We graduated in '59—sixty years ago in June, at the State University.

I write a few letters, and serve others of the family. I have attended every commencement at M. A. C. since 1870, possibly excepting one or two of the earlier. The campus and all it contains is a dear spot to me. I am planning to visit M. A. C. this year.

Thanks for congratulations,

W. G. BEAL

When a man is thirty and married

This, in brief, is the business history of a good many thousand college men:

They make rather successful starts in business; for the first few years their progress seems entirely satisfactory to them. They are unmarried, independent, and their incomes are ample for their individual needs.

Then they marry, and in their early thirties the conviction comes to them that they are not making as rapid progress as they ought.

The expenditure crowds ever closer to the income; they see men passing them, sometimes unaccountably; the job that had seemed hardly more than a game before, becomes suddenly a serious problem—often never fully solved.

The solution of 75,000 successful men

It is at that period, and at that age, that college men turn in large numbers to the Alexander Hamilton Institute.

The average age of the 75,000 men enrolled in the Institute’s Modern Business Course and Service in the past ten years is over thirty; eighty-five per cent of them are married.

In other words they are no longer boys, but men, realizing keenly that the highest positions in business are open only to men who have an all-round knowledge of the fundamentals that underly all business; and that such knowledge is gained only by training.

That the Alexander Hamilton Institute can and does give this training is proved by the record of the 75,000 successful men who have enrolled themselves in it.

Advisory Council

Read over these names of the men who make up the Advisory Council of the Institute:

Frank A. Vanderlip, President of the National City Bank of New York; John Hays Hammond, the eminent engineer; Jeremiah W. Jenks, the statistician and economist, General Coleman duPont, the well-known business executive and Joseph French Johnson, Dean of the New York University School of Commerce.

13,000 of the 75,000 men who have enrolled with the Institute are corporation presidents—a testimony to the scope and authority of the Institute’s Course and Service.

Investigation is easy

This advertisement is addressed to two classes of men. To young men first—in their twenties and thirties and early forties—who are asking themselves “Where am I going to be in business ten years from now?”

There is an answer to that question in “Forging Ahead in Business” the Institute’s 112-page book. It is free; entirely without obligation; and well worth an evening of any man’s time. Send for it.

The second man to whom this is addressed is the older alumnus to whom young men are constantly coming for advice about their future. If you are such a man, you should know enough about the Institute to be able to speak helpfully concerning it; you should know what it has done for 75,000 other men.

Your name on the coupon will bring you “Forging Ahead in Business.” Let us send you your copy now.

FIRST INTERSCHOLASTIC BASKET TOURNEY GREAT SUCCESS.

The first interscholastic basketball tournament to be held at M. A. C. went off without a hitch and was a decided success both from the standpoint of visiting schools, and the college. Forty-four teams entered the contests, bringing 350 Michigan high school boys to M. A. C.'s campus, many of them for the first time. During the meet they were the guests of the college.

Holland high school proved to be the dark horse in Michigan basketball this year, exceeding all comers in the annual interscholastic tournament. The western Michigan team won the state title in the final game Saturday afternoon, defeating Detroit Northwestern by a score of 14 to 12.

In the Class "B" series for schools of less than 400 students, Cadillac won the championship, beating Greenville in the final game Saturday afternoon by a score of 25 to 13.

Battle Creek won from Jackson, Lansing and Detroit Northern and was awarded the consolation trophy cup in the Class "A" race. Chelsea, high school which was entered in the Class "B" series, won four of five games and took the consolation cup in this series.

Complete satisfaction with the tournament and praise for M. A. C. athletic officials was expressed by visiting coaches at the banquet which concluded the tournament on Saturday evening. At this banquet which was attended by coaches and players, the trophy cups were awarded and basketball charms were presented to the individual players on the first and second teams in each race.

Much good was derived from the tournament by all visiting teams and by comparing notes in style of play and methods of coaching Director Brewer declares that he is confident that basketball will take a big forward stride in the state. Director Brewer, together with Coach George E. Gauthier conducted the tournament which proved such a success that it has already been firmly established among state schools as an annual event.

RETURNED FIGHTERS BRIGHTEN BASEBALL HOPES.

With the return to college this term of Captain "Big John" Hammes, first baseman, Hugh Donnelly, pitcher, and Ward Andrews, third baseman, returned warriors all, Director Brewer is feeling exceptionally confident over the prospects for a crack diamond squad this spring. During the early workouts last term the future didn't appear especially bright for baseball, but with Hammes released from the navy, Andrews fresh from a naval aviation camp and Donnelly just released from the army, the aspect has taken a decided upward trend.

Of the men in college, who with these three, will form a nucleus for this year's baseball team, are catchers Stanley Johnson and Millard and Doscher and Snyder of the outfield, last year veteran men who are bracing the squad materially.

Director Brewer is delighted over the former all-fresh material that is coming in this spring for the varsity. Not only has he last year's freshmen to pick from, but several very promising infielders from the freshman class of year before last, who have been in the army and are re-entering this term, have appeared for workouts. These include Peterson, Carr and Bartels, all members of the all-fresh in 1917. The first game is April 19th with Alma here and from a glance at the schedule, which follows, it will be seen that the Aggies will need all of the material they can get, both green and veterans, to make a creditable showing against the formidable array of talent that will be lined up against them. The schedule to date is:

- April 19—Alma here.
- April 20—Kalamazoo college here.

Alumni Notes

Wm. R. Rummel of the law firm of Rummel & Rummel Patent Lawyers, Tribune Bldg., Chicago, says "the part of the Record, which looks the best "from where I sit" and which is always read first is that section of the alumni notes covering '83 to '89. We do not see half enough about the boys whose names we look for under that head."

Louis A. Bregger, R. No. 1 Bangor, Michigan "is a farmer on the active list. Just had a short visit from son, John T. Bregger, Co. H. 63rd Infantry, M. A. C. 1917 who is now stationed at Wilmington, Delaware."

P. G. Holden is director of the Agricultural Extension Department of the International Harvester Company. J. H. Post '04 is one of the extensionists of the department.

W. W. Tracy, Jr., has moved from Rocky Ford, Colorado to Ft. Collins, Colorado.

Dwight S. Cole, who is still identified with the Petoskey Portland Cement Company, called on East Lansing friends March 21st.

Valmore L. Steward, who was formerly a civil engineer at Santa Ana, California is practicing civil engineering at Omak, Washington.

The Record recently heard of a Detroit school teacher, who was taking special work at Columbia University and who asked one of the professors, where she could go to get the best course in gardening and agriculture given in the United States. It is said that the professor didn't know she was from Michigan either but he very promptly answered, the Michigan Agricultural College. He might have been Kains.

Newell John McCune arrived March 20th at the home of N. A. and Mrs. McCune, East Lansing.

John M. Rankin has left the Department of Agriculture and has just taken a position with the Emerson Brantingham Implement Company of Rockford, Illinois. Mr. Rankin is director of the agricultural extension department for that company.

George Tryon is mechanical superintendent of the Anacoma Copper Mining Company at Great Falls Mont.

E. S. Harrison is a farmer at Paw Paw, Michigan.

H. Ray Kingsley (with) was discharged from the army on December 31, 1918 and has resumed work at his former position as Building Engineer for the Insular government in the Bureau of Public Works, Manila, P. I. Capt. Kingsley was in the service a little over a year and was in command of the engineers on the Island of Corregidor. He was in command of Co. A. 3rd Regiment of Engineers, one of the four regular engineering regiments of the army before the war and naturally expected that his regiment, being regulars, would see service. He had previously served in the Red Cross in France before the entrance of America into the war, and was very much disappointed at not seeing France a second time.

A printed report, contained in an attractive and well illustrated booklet of twenty pages tells of the work of Fred A. Loew, County Agricultural Agent of Huntington County, Huntington, Indiana. This is an annual report of the Agricultural agent and tells of the progress that is being made in his county in agricultural pursuits, farmers associations and boys' and girls' clubs.

C. A. Reed, who was temporarily on the lost list is at his old address 109 Chestnut Ave., Tacoma Park, Washington.

A. W. Wilson is manager of the Wilson Motor Sales Company, 619 Young St., Toronto, Ont.

Violet Miller Drilling is laboratory technician for Dr. Leonard F. C. Wendl, 1429 David Whitney Bldg., Detroit, Michigan.

R. Morley Reynolds has disposed of his farm near Rapid City, Michigan, and has accepted a position with the creamery and cold storage plant at Traverse City, Michigan. He is living there at 513 Rose St.

Lieu. Chas. N. Frey expected to be discharged from service April 1st. He is now in the surgeon's office, medical department at headquarters, Camp Custer, Michigan. Frey writes, "am glad M. A. C. is getting back to normal and able to have a real J. Hop. It will take some time to re-
