   B. Dr. James R. Anderson, Professor of Humanities, presented Board members with a packet of documents pertaining to his view of the heritage and prospects for General Education at Michigan State. As curricular decisions are made, Professor Anderson requested that the Board maintain a vigilance and an active oversight in the mission of the University.
   C. Mr. Carl Bruch and Mr. James Garland, students and members of Project Recycle, presented petitions containing student, faculty, and staff signatures supporting a University Recycling Program. Mr. Bruch and Mr. Garland encouraged the University to apply for funds available through Proposal C for the establishment and implementation of a campuswide recycling program.

4. The report of President DiBiaggio included the following:
   A. Following an introduction by the President, Vice President Gordon Guyer commented on the progress and plans of the Office of Governmental Affairs in representing the University in regard to funding and legislation. Dr. Guyer stated that substantive progress has been made in developing partnerships while working towards increased visibility and resources for the University.
   B. President DiBiaggio reported the University has negotiated agreements with all seven of the collective bargaining agents with whom it was bargaining new contracts starting in 1988. Six of the agreements have been ratified and are in the process of implementation. The remaining agreement is subject to ratification by its membership in the near future.

Representatives of the employee groups and the bargaining teams were commended by the President for laying the foundation for a new era of cooperation between employee representatives and the administration.

The classification study of the University’s administrative, professional, clerical and technical positions has been completed.
C. By the end of this fiscal year, the University expects to exceed $100 million in commitments to "MSU 2000," the first major, University-wide Capital Campaign.

D. The names of the student recipients of the Trustee GPA Awards for Winter Term 1989, were announced as follows: Kathy N. Wright, Cecilia Soke Han Ho, Linda R. Doorenbos, and Heather J. Spafford. Award checks will be presented to the students at the March 11 commencement ceremony.

E. Faculty members and deans were recognized by President DiBiaggio for their cooperation in working with the administration in implementing the R document. The goal of the University is to maintain quality and excellence while working within available resources.

F. President DiBiaggio commended Mr. William Schonbein for his contributions to the development and growth of the University's clinical activities while serving as Vice President for Health Services and Facilities. Human Health Programs have been reorganized and expanded to encompass academic programs as well as clinical services, and the President complimented Mr. Schonbein's leadership and management which has ensured an orderly transition.
