5. The report of the President included the following:

A. President DiBiaggio introduced Board of Trustee candidates Trustee Lawrence Owen, Ms. Dolores Cook, and Mr. Jack Shingleton; Mr. Lawrence Doss was not present.

B. Fall term enrollment totals 42,785. Minority enrollment is at an all-time high with increases in Black, Hispanic, Chicom, Native American, and Asian/Pacific Islander students. The representation of women graduate students and out-of-state undergraduates also increased. President DiBiaggio remarked that within resource limitations, the University is aware of its need to balance the land-grant tradition of access, improve recruitment of minority students, and retention of all students.

C. In the highly competitive market, the University is pleased to have recruited and employed 98 faculty members who reflect MSU's commitment to quality and diversity.

D. President DiBiaggio reported on the 1990-91 budget appropriation and expressed appreciation to the Governor and the Legislature for their continued support of Michigan State. The efforts of Dr. Gordon Gwyer, Messrs. Steve Webster, Ron Flinn, and Joe Cavanaugh were acknowledged as well as student leaders for their advocacy on behalf of the University.

E. Two recent events held on campus receiving national attention were a colloquy commemorating the centennial of John Henry Newman's death and a convocation honoring Dr. Robert Mugabe, President of Zimbabwe.

F. President DiBiaggio read statements of appreciation from several MSU retirees for the Board action improving retiree benefits.
