Present: Trustees Carrigan, Hartman, Huff, Martin, Merriman, Stevens, Thompson, and White; President Wharton, Executive Vice President and Secretary Breslin, Provost Cantlon, Vice Presidents Muelder, Ferrin, Wilkinson, Dean Smuckler, Dean of Students Nonnamaker, Assistants to the President Ballard, Spaniolo, Wilkie.

President Wharton called the information meeting to order at 8:10 p.m. He indicated that the only item to be discussed would be a presentation by Dr. Ralph Smuckler, Dean of International Programs. President Wharton pointed out that Dean Smuckler had briefed the Trustees in March on the activities of the University's International Programs. His presentation would be an update on current activities and developments in the international dimension of MSU.

Dean Smuckler discussed the review document which had been previously distributed to the Trustees. He also referred to a recent annual report of the Office of International Programs which had been given to the Trustees just prior to the meeting. He outlined the following new directions and changes in the international scene as they relate to Michigan State University.

1. A need for a network of university ties throughout the world which would include exchange of faculty and students.

2. New issues which have an international dimension as well as relevance to the domestic scene within the United States must be dealt with by universities.

3. A need to think in new ways concerning projects in developing nations so that new patterns of relationships can reflect the trend toward greater usage of nationals in leadership positions in projects.

4. A need to look more closely at our study-abroad programs to make sure that these programs are of longer duration, tied in with the academic needs of the University, and reflect NSU's curriculum priorities.

Dean Smuckler pointed out that in the program review document there is no recommendation that the University expand its international activities. He indicated that there is instead a call for shifting some of the University's emphasis in international programs in light of current trends and needs. He discussed the operation of the faculty-student International Projects Committee which reviews international activities of the University as they relate to faculty and students.

Dr. Smuckler reviewed for the Board some of the areas being explored by International Programs for projects in the future. This included programs concerned with non-formal education, management of rural development organizations, and problems of institution building in developing nations. He pointed out that these programs will involve research and training and will include MSU faculty and students. He also reported on the continued growth of the international influence on campus courses. He reported that currently 25 percent of the University's courses contain an international dimension. He also reported on the current situation concerning funding of international projects by federal and private sources. He indicated that while general support money has been cut back, there was sufficient funding to allow the University to continue specific projects.

Trustee Carrigan asked Dean Smuckler about the decision process regarding University projects of an international nature. He pointed out that the Office of International Programs operates under guidelines established by the faculty-student committee. He also discussed the problems the International Projects Committee faces in decisions regarding specific project proposals. Mrs. Carrigan also raised the issue of involving the Board of Trustees in such decisions. Provost Cantlon commented that the Board is involved since agreements between the University and other organizations must be approved by the Trustees. Trustee Huff indicated that the Board has had a long history of involvement in the international dimension of the University.

Trustee Stevens asked how individual colleges within the University work in relation to the Office of International Programs. Dean Smuckler reported that any international project or commitment involving any part of the University comes before the Office of International Programs and the International Projects Committee. Mr. Stevens also asked about the funding of foreign students at the University. Dr. Smuckler reported that a majority of the foreign students on campus were financed by outside sources.

Trustee White asked for Dean Smuckler's personal opinion regarding faculty support of the international dimension at MSU. Dean Smuckler reported that such support has been very strong. He said that a recent campus questionnaire indicated this support. He also pointed out that many of the pressing social problems of concern to faculty today have international aspects.

Trustee Merriman commented on the University's agricultural emphasis in international projects of the past. He asked if such efforts had been successful and if the University's international dimension was moving away from this agricultural aspect. Dr. Smuckler indicated that MSU had experienced success in the agricultural area of developing nations and that a strong agricultural core still existed in many of the University projects in other countries. President Wharton also commented that the nature of the University's agricultural projects in other countries has changed with agricultural trends, developments, and approaches.
Minutes of the Informal Meeting

September 9, 1971

Presentation by President Wharton introduced Dr. Mitchell Stengel of the Economics Department and indicated that Dr. Stengel wanted to make a presentation concerning the University's recent agreement with Arya Mehr University in Iran. Dean Smuckler had briefly mentioned the agreement when discussing future directions in exchange agreements with other universities throughout the world. Dr. Stengel questioned the benefits that the University will receive from the agreement due to the political climate in Iran. He reviewed for the Board various incidents which have occurred in Iran and at Arya Mehr University. He also stated that in light of the University's past experience in Vietnam, further embarrassment would be received from the agreement with the Iranian university. He called for the Board of Trustees to establish a special committee to study more closely the University's international commitments and to hold the Arya Mehr agreement in abeyance until the committee had completed its study.

Trustee White asked Dean Smuckler if any foundations are supporting the Arya Mehr project. Dr. Smuckler indicated that the only support had been a limited travel grant from the Midwest Universities Consortium for International Activities (MUCIA).

Dr. Samuel Moore, chairman of the International Projects Committee, made a brief presentation to the Board. He indicated that the committee did not view itself as a rubber stamp of University policies in international activities. In answer to a question by Trustee Carrigan, Dr. Moore stated that the committee had not requested any further information regarding the Arya Mehr project but noted on the project as presented. Dean Smuckler indicated that if any developing country is viewed closely an argument can be made that the political situation is not stable enough to justify University involvement. He added that in the field of international projects, the University often has to live with uncertain political conditions. He stated that the agreement offers the University a good opportunity for a close relationship with a part of the world with which MSU has had very little past contact. Trustee White asked if the University's tenure rules would also apply to MSU faculty who might teach at Arya Mehr University while on sabbatical leave. Provost Cantlon indicated that the rules generally do apply in the case of international projects but that this section of the agreement caused some concern for the University administration. Provost Cantlon stated that the University felt that faculty would gain important cultural and educational advantages from teaching at Arya Mehr and that such assignment should be approved under the rules of sabbatical leaves.

Trustee Merriman asked if the University has consulted with the U.S. Department of State concerning the Arya Mehr agreement. Dean Smuckler indicated that the University obtained information from an American at the university and from University of Illinois personnel who have long been involved in projects in Iran. He indicated that the University had not consulted with the State Department.

Trustee Huff asked for Dean Smuckler's views concerning the limiting of foreign students on campus to graduate levels. Dr. Smuckler stated that while greater cross-cultural advantages might be obtained by having more undergraduate students from other countries, generally the financing of such students was aimed at the graduate levels. He added that the needs of developing countries continue to be for students with graduate training. Dean Smuckler also responded that the mix of graduate and undergraduate students from other nations is generally not under the University's control but that of outside funding sources.

In response to a question by Trustee Huff regarding the College of Business' involvement in the international dimension, President Wharton indicated that the business education needs of developing countries have changed from the past to a greater emphasis on management of agribusiness and specific production problems.

In answer to another question by Trustee Huff, Dean Smuckler reported on the University's activities in Canadian-American Studies indicating a need for further development in this area providing proper funding can be obtained.

President Wharton thanked Dean Smuckler and the other guests for their presentations and adjourned the meeting.
President Wharton called the Finance Committee meeting to order at 1:15 p.m.

The following members were present: Trustees Carrigan, Hartman, Huff, Martin, Merriman, Stevens, and Thompson; President Wharton, Executive Vice President and Secretary Breslin, Provost Cantlon, Attorney Carr, Vice President Wilkinson, Assistant to the President Ballard.

Mr. Steve Terry, Assistant Vice President for Business and Finance, and Mr. Robert Wenner, Director of Internal Audit, who work very closely with the auditors, were also in attendance.

Mr. Schwartz made a detailed statement concerning the scope of the audit. Mr. Bucknell reported that in his estimation the University's internal fiscal controls were excellent and that all accounts of the University were in good shape.

Responding to Trustee Merriman's question: "Would Ernst & Ernst assist the University in responding to criticism by the State auditor?" Mr. Bucknell said they would do all they could to assist the University.

Trustees Hartman and Thompson reported they were very pleased with the audit. They recommended Mr. Bucknell and Mr. Schwartz for their frankness as well as their complete explanation of the procedures used in making the audit.

It was moved by Trustee Thompson, seconded by Trustee Hartman, to accept the audit. Unanimously approved.

Funds will be available from legislative appropriations to cover funding of this project.

On motion by Trustee Carrigan, seconded by Trustee Merriman, it was unanimously voted to approve the awarding of the contracts and the budget for the Fee Hall Conversion - Phase II.

*At the October 15, 1971 Board meeting Trustee Huff requested that the reason for awarding the contract to the second low bidder for the synthetic sports surfacing be noted in the minutes. The reasons were as follows:

1. The lower bidder does not have any installation over 3 years old whereas a 5-year requirement was specified;
2. While their material seems to be satisfactory for indoor use, we have nothing on which to base a recommendation for its use as an all-weather installation;
3. Because the University will invest over $450,000.00 in this project, the need was felt to recommend a firm with the strongest experience we could obtain.

e. Recommendation that the following fee refund policy be made effective fall term 1971:

If a student withdraws from the University or drops a course which reduces his total load, the refund policy will be:

1. For changes made through the last day for adding courses (currently the fifth day of classes) - one-half of the regular course fees and all of the non-resident tuition for the net credits dropped will be refunded, i.e., the University will retain half of the resident fees.

2. For credits dropped after the last day for adding courses - no fees will be refunded.

The last day for adding courses is set forth in the University calendar each term. It is assumed that the Registrar’s Office and the Withdrawal Office will continue to exercise discretion in the implementation of this policy when students drop credits or withdraw under circumstances which are beyond their control. Every effort will be made to notify all students of this change in policy and to counsel them as to its effect on their plans.

f. Recommendation that an Athletic Budget of $2,144,300 be approved.

Vice President Wilkinson explained that the State appropriation included only a 3.5% wage adjustment for faculty and staff, but through adjustments to the current operating base of all departments, approximately 3% additional had been provided. When the Federal wage and price freeze is either lifted or modified, recommendations for salary adjustments for faculty and staff will be made to the Trustees.

Motion was made by Trustee Huff, seconded by Trustee Thompson, to approve the 1971-72 University General, Agricultural Experiment Station, Cooperative Extension Service, and Athletic budgets; the 1971-72 fee schedule, and the fee refund policy as recommended. Unanimously carried. Trustee Huff stated that he would like to have the University make a long-range study of the fee structure.

2. Vice President Wilkinson and Provost Cantlon presented the proposed budget request for the fiscal year 1972-73, which is summarized as follows:

(A more detailed summary of this request is filed in the Secretary’s Office.)

Executive Vice President Breslin reported that it would be necessary to submit a capital outlay request for fiscal 1972-73 prior to the October meeting of the Board. He asked for permission to submit the tentative capital outlay request in September as requested by the Governor’s Office. This request will be on the October agenda for final approval by the Board.

Motion was made by Trustee Thompson, seconded by Trustee Carrigan, and unanimously carried to approve the 1972-73 budget and tentative capital outlay requests. Trustee White stated that he felt that higher education would have to find a source of funding other than state appropriations and student fees, and Trustee Hartman asked that a discussion of alternate plans be included in a future Board agenda.

3. Motion was made by Trustee Stevens, supported by Trustee Carrigan, and unanimously carried to approve the following resolution:

WHEREAS: The voting age in all elections has recently been lowered from 21 to 18, thus creating an unusually large number of newly eligible voters. U.S. Constitutional Amendment, No. 26.

WHEREAS: The Michigan Supreme Court has this year unanimously ruled that students must be treated the same as all residents, for the purpose of registering and voting; and

WHEREAS: A majority of Michigan State University students are between the ages of 18 and 21 and may be unfamiliar with voter registration procedures in East Lansing and the surrounding communities and the definition of "residence" for voting purposes; and
WHEREAS: It is a proper educational and social function for Michigan State University to affirmatively inform, encourage, and assist all members of the university community to register to vote, especially the new resident and the newly eligible voter.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That it shall be the policy of Michigan State University to affirmatively inform, encourage, and assist students to conveniently register to vote and to use their elective franchise; and

FURTHER, BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED: That all Michigan State University personnel be informed of this policy and urged to assist and cooperate with voter registration groups and media representatives in their efforts to publicize voter registration requirements and information and to register students to vote during university student registration and at other appropriate times and places of public convenience.

REPORTS

1. The report of the Special Review Committee on the All-University Traffic Committee, as well as the administration's position on this report, had been previously distributed to the Trustees. However, since the Review Committee had not had an opportunity to react to the administration's position, it was agreed that a discussion of the Special Review Committee report would be deferred until the October 15, 1971 Board meeting.

Vice President Perrin discussed the Report on Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action at Michigan State University 1970-1971, which had been previously distributed to the Trustees. He stated that the anti-discrimination machinery which evolved from the Brookover Committee Report adopted by the Trustees on February 28, 1970 has been very effective. He expressed confidence that no deliberate policies of discrimination which are countenanced or supported by the administration exist at MSU. We do, however, have individual cases of bias or judgment which are more difficult to uncover but which are being dealt with on an individual basis. An affirmative action plan which sets hiring goals for women faculty, minority faculty, and non-academic employees is presented in the report.

Dr. Joseph McMillan, Director of Equal Opportunity Programs and Executive Secretary of the Committee Against Discrimination, and Mrs. Mary Sharp, Executive Secretary of the Anti-Discrimination Judicial Board, also spoke briefly about the report. Dr. McMillan reported that requests come in almost daily from other institutions for information and ideas as they attempt to set up grievance procedures. He also stated that we have excellent relationships with other civil rights agencies in the state.

Trustee Carrigan stated that she felt the recommendation of goals for the recruitment of women faculty was not very aggressive and is one that will have unfortunate consequences.

Trustee Stevens described the involvement of several state universities in the problems of migrants and expressed the hope that our Equal Opportunities Programs would participate fully in these kinds of programs in the future. He also pointed out that in some cases women faculty members whose husbands are also members of the faculty might not wish to be advanced in their departments.

Trustee Huff agreed with Trustee Carrigan that the goals for the recruitment of women were not acceptable.

President Wharton indicated his willingness to review with Vice President Perrin's staff the target goals, but he pointed out that significant increases in the goals might require additional specified funding.

Trustee Thompson said he felt people should be selected on the basis of their motivation, ability, and what they could contribute and not because of their color or sex.

Vice President Perrin made the point that the situation would be improved through the entry of increased numbers of women and minorities into the graduate schools.

President Wharton assured the Trustees that the affirmative action plan would be reported on again at the October Board meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 6:37 p.m.
