3. President’s Report

A. President McPherson reported that Olin Health Center has expanded both its hours of operation and pharmacy hours. Efforts are also being made to make more efficient use of the primary care staff and to identify ways to better coordinate services. President McPherson complimented Olin’s leadership for improving the quality of service while reducing costs.

B. President McPherson commented that MSU can be proud of its successful partnership with Wexford Community School in Lansing. Enrollment at the school has increased, and parents have become more involved in their children’s education. The President said this program is an excellent example of outreach responding to the needs of the community.
C. President McPherson reported that he had recently testified before a subcommittee of the House Committee on Education and the Work Force which was chaired by Congressman Hoekstra from Michigan. In their discussion about K-12 education, President McPherson said he emphasized, in particular, the importance of setting educational expectations for students, parents, and teachers. He said he also emphasized the importance of teacher training, international test score comparisons, and reported on the national ranking of MSU’s College of Education.

D. President McPherson welcomed new Student Liaisons Rachel Garcia, member-at-large, and Frank Montabon, President of the Council of Graduate Students, and new faculty liaison Dr. Robb Clarke.

4. Guiding Principles Report

Vice President Greenleaf reported on Mr. Ahmed Kathrada’s book, Letters From Robben Island, published by MSU Press. The recently released book is the prison correspondence of Mr. Kathrada, a colleague of Nelson Mandela; Mr. Kathrada was in prison with Mr. Mandela for 26 years. The full copy of the prison correspondence is in the MSU Libraries; the originals are inaccessible in an archive in South Africa. Mr. Greenleaf said this is an excellent illustration of the international dimension in the Guiding Principles and The MSU Promise. Mr. Kathrada has been at MSU periodically during the last three years working with his friend, Robert Vassen of the English Department, who edited the book. The publication of Letters From Robben Island is part of MSU’s South African initiative and reflects the University’s long-time support for democracy in South Africa. Vice President Greenleaf noted there would be events related to this publication in East Lansing, Detroit, Washington D.C. at the South African Embassy, New York City, Boston—including the Kennedy Library, and in Los Angeles. The book has received considerable attention nationally and in South Africa where it has already been distributed. Mr. Greenleaf said this is good recognition for the MSU Press and for MSU.

5. There were no requests to address the Board on issues germane to the agenda.

The project which has been funded by Michigan Virtual University will assist teachers in integrating technology in the classroom to improve student learning.

4) Ms. Gonzales reported that MSU continues to exceed U.S. News and World Report predicted graduation rates by approximately 14 percentage points.

5) Ms. Gonzales noted that she and Trustee Ferguson had attended a retirement dinner for Mr. Frank Garrison. Ms. Gonzales said she also had the pleasure of attending a Clerical-Technical Union dinner, and that Dr. Keith Groty and Mr. Sam Baker had also attended.

B. Trustees’ Comments

1) Trustee McNamara inquired about the formation of a sub-committee of the Policy Committee to discuss issues related to the Federated case decision. Trustees Ferguson, McNamara, Porteous, and Weis volunteered to serve on the committee. Vice President Noto will be a technical adviser to the committee.

2) Trustee Cook reported that she had recently attended a Development event at Veterinary Medicine for donors who had given $2 million for endowed chairs. The donors were particularly interested in focusing on their gift for small animals. Ms. Cook said she toured the small animal clinic and was impressed with the services that are available. She said the clinic is an extraordinary asset to the people of Michigan.

Ms. Cook also shared her experience of meeting a person outside the building as she was going into the Veterinary Medicine event. She learned the person was Dr. James Cunningham, a faculty member in Veterinary Medicine and an artist, who has contributed a major piece of art that was placed in a garden area near the Veterinary Medicine building. She noted the appropriateness of the Trustees’ recent discussions related to art on the campus.

Trustee Cook noted there are areas of the campus grounds that appear to need attention, and, in particular, the area surrounding Jenison Field House. Mr. Jeff Kacso, Director of Campus Park and Planning, responded that the dry grass and bare ground are the results of the summer’s drought, and, in some instances, an infestation of insects. He said Campus Park and Planning is attempting to correct the situation.
3) Trustee Weiss reported that DCL enrollment is up this year, and there has been an increase in the quality of entering students. He said DCL is committed to being a quality law school.

4) Trustee Nugent commented on the recent death of Mr. Elton Smith who had the first endowed chair in the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources named for him. Mr. Nugent said Mr. Smith was an extraordinary farm leader, and a strong supporter of MSU throughout his career.

Mr. Nugent commended the Alumni Association for its rapid growth in membership this year. He reported that the recent Alumni event at Bay Harbor in Petoskey was very well attended.

Mr. Nugent remarked that the joint College of Nursing program for nurse practitioners with the Veterans Administration is a truly exciting opportunity. Michigan State is the first university in the nation to work with the Veterans in this way.

5) Trustee Traxler commented that he wished to draw his colleagues’ attention to the Michigan Chef’s Program being held at the Kellogg Center. Last year the series featured chefs from around the country; this year the chefs are all from Michigan. He said the program has attracted considerable attention.

Mr. Traxler complimented the staff of Kellogg Center for their hospitality. He said in the last year or so there has been a dramatic improvement in the staffing and courtesies as well as in the appearance of the facility.

President McPherson said Joel Heberlein, Manager, should be congratulated for the impact he has had on Kellogg Center operations.

6) President McPherson noted that in honor of Hispanic Heritage Month, the Julian Samora Research Institute is sponsoring a reception to welcome new Chicano/Latino faculty, staff and students. The reception will be held on October 13 at the Kellogg Center.

11. Public Participation on Other Issues

A. Vance L. Kincaid II, staff member in the Department of Physiology, voiced his concerns about what he believes is the misapplication of PA 425 by Meridian Township to block the annexation efforts of the City of East Lansing. He urged the Board and the President to consider asking the Michigan legislature to grant some level of municipal authority to the University so it would be immune from future annexation disputes and taxation.

B. Violet Hickey, staff member in the MSU Grounds Department and Vice President of MSU Local 1585, spoke on behalf of AFSCME, AFL-CIO, MSU Locals 1585 and 999. Ms. Hickey expressed concern about recent negotiations. She said that the longstanding partnership between the University and their locals could be in jeopardy. She described the membership of MSU 1585 and 999 as being loyal and responsible employees with longevity who provide dedicated service to Michigan State.

12. An Executive Session was not requested.

13. On a motion by Mr. Ferguson, supported by Mr. Nugent, the Board adjourned.
